DO NOT WAIT

until you are really ill before resorting to treatment. Immediate attention should always be given to minor ailments lest they lead to more serious trouble. A bilious headache—a tendency to constipation—a feeling of discomfort after eating—a sensation of drowsiness during working hours—impaired appetite—these are all symptoms that two of the most important organs in the body—the stomach and the liver—are not working satisfactorily. The right remedy to whenever there is the slightest suspicion that all is not well with the organs of digestion, is Beecham's Pills—that well-known trustworthy preparation which has had such enormous success in the treatment of digestive disorders. Those who have tried this remedy—and they now number a great multitude—are entirely satisfied that, for correcting ailments of the stomach and the liver, there is nothing to surpass

TAKE

DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION

DOCTORS recommend EARL'S FLUID PEPSINE. Sir C. CAMERON, M.D., Analytical Report:—"I can strongly recommend Earl's Fluid Pepsine as a Reliable Remedy for Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It contains the digestive properties of the gastric juices in a highly concentrated, permanent, and reliable form. It causes even the toughest beef to become digested; it is peculiarly suited for invalids and young children, and is superior both in strength and efficacy to any other preparation of Pepsine." Of all Chemists and Druggists, in Bottles, 1/-, 3/-, 3/6, 10/6. Central Depot—12 Grafton street, Dublin.

LUX

Pleased to meet you, LUX. I've often thought of you when shearing the sheep "down under."

WE'RE proud of our wool in the new country, and I guess the old country is proud of its LUX. We Colonials, you know, sometimes think the Mother country is slow, but she's quick enough at the wash tub with you about.

What's that? Australians don't shrink from danger on the battlefield, and you'll take care that Australian wool doesn't shrink in the wash—well then, we're both keeping the Empire from shrinking.

All who value good clothes should see that they are always washed with Lux. It is specially suitable for washing Blankets, Flannels, Woollens and Dainty Fabrics.

MARKET REPORTS.

GRAIN.

FLOATING GRAIN CARGOES (THE BALTIC), Monday.—WHEAT—There was practically no enquiry for cargoes which are held above buyers' views, quotations being quite nominal. No. 1 Northern Manitoba, April, sellers, 62/-; May, 61/3; May-June, 59/-; White Walla and Blue Stem due out to load, 56/-, and Australian, February, 66/-; ditto shipping or shipped, 64/6. Parcels firmer; No. 1 Northern Manitoba arrived, also afloat, sold 59/6 to 60/6; March, 60/3 to 60/6; March-April, 59/- to 59/6; April-May, 56/3 to 56/9; May-June, 55/6; No. 1 Northern Duluth afloat, 58/9. BARLEY idle. Sailer of superior Californian brewing, April, sellers, 61/-. MAIZE dull. Sailers of South African, afloat, also March-April, sellers, 53/-, and a part cargo of La Plata expected loading, 52/-. Parcels firm; La Plata, April-May, sold 47/3 to 47/6; May-June, 46/9 to 47/-. OATS dull. Bahia Blanca, afloat, quoted 29/-; La Plata, 28/-.

MARK LANE, Monday.—English wheat easier. Whites delivered up range to 56/6; Reds up to 56/- per quarter 504lbs. Foreign grades rather lower. No. 1 Northern Manitoba, 64/6 landed; No. 2 Northern Manitoba, 63/6. FLOUR quiet. Canadian exports patents, 47/- to 48/- landed; Minneapolis, first patents, 48/6 upwards; No. 1 Town Households, 48/-. GRINDING BARLEY dull. American, 42/6 landed. OATS slow. Plate, 28/- upwards landed; American white clipped, 31/6 landed. MAIZE steady. Plate, 57/- landed. Estimated shipments of wheat and flour to Europe for past week, 1,595,000 qrs. Grain arrivals this week:—English and Scottish—Wheat, 3,078; barley, 1,458; malt, 12,567; oats, 2,704; beans, 52; peas, 69; maize, 625 qrs.; flour, 20,233 sacks; Irish oats, 566 qrs.; Foreign—Wheat, 12,907; barley, 3,937; malt, nil; oats, 68,758; beans, 499; peas, 156; maize, 78,491 qrs.; flour, 27,673 sacks.

LIVERPOOL, Monday.—There was little material change in wheat here during the early trading, smaller shipments to the United Kingdom than expected being counteracted by increased local stocks here, but offerings were afterwards made more sparingly, and prices improved about 3d. per quarter for c.i.f. parcels. Maize remained nominal in the absence of offers in forward positions. WHEAT on the spot was quietly steady, with late prices repeated for all descriptions. MAIZE spot parcels attracted little attention, but no material change made in values. FLOUR quiet with the minimum price of bakers' grade unchanged at 48/- per sack. WHEAT CARGOES still inactive, with No. 1 Manitoba, April, quoted 64/- and May 61/6 per qr. In parcels, No. 1 Manitoba, March-April, sold at 59/- to 59/1½, April-May 58/-, and No. 2 hard winter afloat 61/- per qr. MAIZE CARGOES and parcels are neglected and nominal.

CATTLE.

LONDON, Monday.—A smaller supply of fat cattle, the quality not being so good as last week. Trade ruled firmer, and prices advanced all round, best quality beasts making ½d. per lb. more money. The few polled Scots on offer made 7/2 and the best quality Norfolk shorthorns 7/- per 8lbs. The Irish cattle from Dublin also shared in the dearer trade, realising up to 6/10 per 8lbs., while cows and bulls were 2d. per 8lbs. dearer on the week, averaging 5/8 per 8lbs. Bulls made up to 6/- per 8lbs. Average dead-weight quotations per 8lbs.—Polled Scots, first, 7/2; shorthorns, first, 7/-; seconds, 6/8. Rather larger entry of sheep, which on the whole were in good demand, prices showing a rise of 4d. to 6d. per 8lbs. compared with last market. Southdowns sold early at 9/4 to 9/8, while Scotch sheep, which were a much larger show, numbering 450, were in improved demand at 9/- to 9/4 per 8lbs. Fat ewes were in short supply, and much sought after, averaging 7/8 per 8lbs., or ½d. per lb. advance on the week. Lamb sales in keener request, the choicest small weights averaging 9/4 and larger sorts 8/8 per 8lbs. Quotations per 8lbs.:—Downs, first, 9/4; second, 8/8; crossbreds, first, 9/-; second, 8/6; lambs, first, 9/4; second, 8/8. Numbers in the market—Cattle, 951; sheep and lambs, 3,701.

BIRKENHEAD, Monday.—There were only 500 cattle on sale to-day at the Birkenhead lairages. In consequence trade was good, finished classes being easily disposed of. A small supply of sheep also met a better trade. Best cattle 10½d.; other classes, 9d. to 10d.; mutton, 11d. to 14d. per lb. in sink. At the dressed beef section trade was good at the following quotations:—Sides, 5/6 to 5/10 per stone of 8lbs., or 8¼d. to 8¾d. per lb.

GLASGOW CATTLE MARKET, March 27, 1916.—Messrs. Hegarty and Kelly, 275 Duke street, Glasgow, had average supplies of fat cattle at Merklands to-day (Monday), with a good attendance of customers present. Bullocks and heifers of quality were in active demand at recent rates. Bulls and cows also experienced a good inquiry, and a total and early clearance was easily effected at satisfactory prices. Telegrams—"Hegarty, Glasgow."—(Advt.)

WEDDEL'S WEEKLY MARKET REPORT.—W. Weddell and Co., Ltd., reports that the BUTTER market continues quiet, but with the exception of Danish butter prices are more or less unchanged. Danish—Prices are about 4/- lower on spot as compared with a fortnight ago, and trading has been on the quiet side. Towards the end of the week, however, a better demand was experienced, and stocks have cleared fairly well. New Zealand—The Ruahine, with 14,000 boxes on board, has arrived, and the Paparoa, with 26,000 boxes is also due at Avonmouth. During the last few days the demand has slackened off somewhat, and here and there concessions of 1/- to 2/- per cwt. have been made for both salted and unsalted descriptions; but in view of the very small arrivals throughout April there should be no necessity to unduly press sales. The market closes steady at our quotations. Australian—The Themistocles, with 8,700 boxes on board, is due at the end of this month, and will probably reach a very good market. There is not much offering on spot, and prices are firm for both salted and unsalted. During the last two or three weeks a fair amount of business has been put through on c.i.f. terms for March shipment at prices ranging from 148/- to 161/- for first grade, and from 142/- to 148/- for second grade. Argentine—The El Uruguayo has landed close on 10,000 boxes at Hull, and the Amazon, with 6,598 boxes on board, is now due at Liverpool. The next London boat is the Highland Loch, due about the end of the month with 9,260 boxes. There has been considerable pressure to sell, and prices have given way slightly. Siberian—The market is unchanged, but there is a better demand for all descriptions. CHEESE—The market continues very firm, and prices generally show advances of from 1/- to 2/- per cwt. Canadian—Arrivals, 10,983 cwts. Finest white and coloured are quoted at from 106/- to 107/- per cwt. New Zealand—Arrivals, 24,850 cwts. There is a brisk inquiry, and the market closes firm. EGGS—With the extremely small supplies available from Denmark and Holland, owing to keen German buying of all supplies available in these countries, the quantities of eggs offering are very small, with Danish nominal at 18/- to 21/6, Dutch 18/- to 21/-. Irish supplies, however, fairly plentiful, while finding a good demand at 16/6 to 17/-. Owing to the shortage of best goods, lower grades, like Egyptians, are obtaining considerably higher prices, extras fetching 13/-, and ordinaries 11/6 per 120.

DUBLIN WHOLESALE POTATO MARKET, March 27.—The market for potatoes remains unaltered. Choice samples rather scarce and wanted, but secondary and inferior sorts are still practically unsaleable. Best Dates, 3/6 to 3/-; Sherry Blues, 5/2 to 5/4 per cwt.

BILLINGSGATE FISH MARKET, March 27.—Supply good; demand quiet. English, Irish, and Scotch salmon and trout, 1/6; soles, 1/8; red mullet, 1/6; dories, 7d. per lb.; turbot and brill, 1/4; halibut, 1/2; lemon soles, 10/-; English plaice, 7/6; Aberdeen, 7/6; Faroe, 6/6; hake, 9/-; skate, 7/-; live cods, 3/6; dead, 3/-; whiting, 4/-; garnet, 5/- per stone; steamer haddocks, 30/- to 40/- per trunk; live eels, 20/-; dead, 17/- per draft; mackerel, 12/- per 60.

GRIMSBY FISH MARKET, March 27.—Twenty-one trawlers arrived poorly fished; prices firm on a fair demand. Soles, 2/2 to 2/4; turbot, 1/- to 1/3; brills, 11d. to 1/- per lb.; English plaice, 8/6 to 9/-; medium, 8/- to 8/6; lemon soles, 14/6 to 15/-; whitings, 7/6 to 8/-; whitches, 10/- to 10/6; dead halibut, 7/- to 20/-; live cod, 3/6 to 4/3; dead, 2/9 to 3/6; gibbed haddocks, 9/-; kit, 7/6 to 8/- per stone.

SMITHFIELD MEAT (London Central Markets), March 27.—Produce arriving here up to 1 p.m. for market or cold store weighed 1,811 tons, being 67 tons above the day's average deliveries. Of the deliveries 959 tons were British-bred, and 852 tons imported from the Colonies and foreign countries, made up as follows:—

	Beef and Veal. Tons.	Mutton and Lamb. Tons.	Pork and Bacon. Tons.	Poultry and Game. Tons.	S'dries. Tons.
British-bred	633	202	87	18	19
Imported	435	262	102	10	43
Total	1068	464	189	28	62

Prices high and firm, trade on the whole fair. Average of the ruling wholesale prices of first quality beef, veal, mutton, lamb and pork quoted at per stone of 8lbs.:—London and country killed beef and veal—English long sides, 5/11; Irish long sides, 5/10; Scotch long sides, 6/1; Scotch short, 6/3; veal, 7/5. Imported beef and veal—South American chilled hindquarters, 5/9; do. fore, 4/9; North American chilled hindquarters, 5/11; do. fore, 4/11; Dutch veal, nil. London and country killed mutton, lamb, and pork—English mutton, 7/3; do. lamb, 8/10; Irish mutton, 7/2; do. lamb, nil; Scotch mutton, 7/6; do. lamb, 7/10; pork, 7/2. Imported mutton, lamb, and pork—Australian mutton, 5/5; do. lamb, 6/-; New Zealand mutton, 5/6; do. lamb, 6/2; South American mutton, 5/2; do. lamb, 6/3; frozen pork, 5/9.

LONDON CENTRAL MEAT MARKET, March 27.—Beef—Scotch long sides, 6/- to 6/4; short, 6/3 to 6/6; English, 5/9 to 6/-; Irish, 5/9 to 6/-; Argentine hindquarters, 5/6 to 6/-; forequarters, 4/7 to 4/11. Mutton—Scotch wethers, 7/- to 7/6; ewes, 6/2 to 6/8; English wethers, 6/6 to 7/2; ewes, 6/6; lamb, English, 7/8 to 9/-; veal, English, 5/- to 7/8; pork, English, 6/- to 7/6.

BUTTER AND EGGS.

LITTLE GREEN WHOLESALE BUTTER AND EGG MARKET, March 27.—Butter markets all round are very quiet and weaker. Eggs strong and dearer on moderate arrivals. A range of quotations await to-morrow's market.

CORK BUTTER MARKET, March 27.—Seconds, 122/-; mild, 146/-; fresh butter, 126/- per cwt.

PRODUCE.

LONDON, Monday.—SUGAR continues in demand at previous rates. Tate's No. 1 cubes 42/6, No. 2 42/-. Lyle's granulated 36/9 to 37/3, white crystals 36/9 to 37/3, yellow crystals 36/6. Landings of raw descriptions in the three chief ports of the United Kingdom during last week total 17,208 tons, deliveries 11,869, and stocks 28,437 tons, against 188,117 tons same time last year. COFFEE—Spot market steady; future delivery section steadier; March quoted 45/9, May 45/7½, July 46/4½, September 47/4½, December 47/6. COCOA steady, quiet pending auctions, supplies for which comprise 5,778 bags Colonial and 1,146 bags foreign. TEA—Indian auctions totalled 26,000 pkgs. Fair competition prevailed, but prices in most cases were a shade weaker. Pekoe sold 9½d. to 1/1½d., broken 9½d. to 1/1, Orange 10d. to 1/1, broken Orange 10½d. to 1/3½d., Souchong 10½d. to 11½d. SPICE—Pepper very quiet, and forward positions nominally unaltered; black Singapore April-June steamer quoted 8d. Cloves quiet, steady; fair on spot 7 11-16d. for Zanzibar. TAPIOCA quiet, unchanged. RICE in quiet demand, but rates unaltered. JUTE inactive, and quotations nominal in most cases. HEMP opened steadier, but became weaker; fair April-June steamer quoted £53, medium sellers at £52; coarse sold £49 10/- to £49, and brown £47 10/-. New Zealand unchanged. Manila receipts 26,000 bales, against 20,000 last year. SHELLAC quiet; T.N. May value 95/-. RUBBER steady, though trade moved quietly. Plantation crepe sold on spot at 3/6¼, April-June 3/7, July-December buyers 3/8. Ribbed smoked sheet spot sold 3/6¼; April-June quoted 3/6¼; fine hard Para spot and March value 3/1½, April-May 3/1½, and May-June 3/1½; soft fine March-April quoted 2/11, ball 2/5½, and scrappy 2/4½. COPRA remains dull, and quotations in a great measure nominal. South Sea Islands to London March-April quoted £35 5/-, Malabar March-May to May sellers sold £41 7/6; Manila ditto buyers at £40. OILS—Linseed quiet on spot; pipes landed 39/3, barrels 40/3. Hull; naked spot 37/6. Rape, ordinary brown naked spot nominal, English refined barrels 55/- to 56/-. Cotton, crude spot pipes 43/6, refined pale spot pipes 48/6, sweet barrels 52/- to 53/-. Turpentine firmer; American spot 51/6 per cwt. Petroleum—American 11½d., and water white 1/- per gallon. OIL SEEDS—Linseed dull, and values again easier; London Calcutta spot 70/-, afloat 70/-, March-April 70/-, April-May 70/-; La Plata-Hull March-April 65/-, April-May 65/-. Rapeseed nominal. Cottonseed dull; London Egyptian spot £14 per ton. HOPS—The market remains without new feature, general trade being very quiet, with quotations in most instances nominally unaltered. English quoted £7 to £7 15/-, yearlings 105/- to 112/-, Pacifics 95/- to 120/-. TALLOW—Australian mutton fair to fine quoted 51/- to 54/-, beef ditto 49/6 to 52/6, and mixed 47/- to 50/6 per cwt. Market steady, but quiet. GLUCOSE maintained; Union Jack common syrup crystal 31/- ex works, London; United Kingdom ditto 31/1½ ex works, Manchester; Globe 3A ditto spot 31/- ex wharf, London. Climax sugar chips spot 32/-, and Buffalo ditto 31/- per cwt. ex wharf, London. FEEDING STUFFS—Linseed Cakes—The reduced values do not appear to attract buyers, and the trade still remains extremely quiet, there being a particularly limited consumptive demand. Best London-made met a dull sale, nearest quotation being £12 to £12 5/-; fine quality seedy Calcuttas are obtainable at £11 17/6 to £12 ex steamer afloat. Cottoncakes—The small quantity of Egyptian in store commands full prices of £9 10/- to £9 12/6, and there are sellers of steamer parcels afloat at £9 5/- to £9 7/6, at which there is a fair business passing, whilst English makes are without alteration at £9 12/6 to £9 15/-, and Bombays £9 5/- per ton. Ground Nut Cakes—Best quality Rufisque in store offers on rather easier terms of £11 10/- to £11 15/-, and Coromandel at £10 15/- to £11. Coconut Cakes—Some good brands of grey Ceylon and Straits makes may be bought at the relatively low figure of £10 to £10 5/-. Maize Germ Meal—English makes are fully 10/- per ton lower, and buyers are able to fill their requirements at prices ranging from £11 5/- to £11 15/-, as to quality. Garton's Maize Glutenfeed goes readily into consumption at the reduced rates of £10 15/- to £11 per ton. Rice Meal—A recent arrival of fine quality white Egyptian is procurable at £10, with some second quality at £8 10/- per ton. Dried brewers' grains remain scarce and dear at £9 5/- per ton for ale, and £8 15/- for mixed, but there are now sellers of some excellent quality French distillers' at £9 10/- per ton for early shipment.

CLYDE CRUSHED SUGAR MARKET, March 27.—Market opened firm.

TRADE REPORT.

BRADFORD WOOL EXCHANGE, March 27.—The market does not show much sign of recovering. Business is of a dragging description, and is confined to spot lots. Topmakers have not made any further reductions in quotations, and values are about steady on the basis of 42½d. for sixty-fours; 37d. for forties. Spinners can get all the business they can cope with in fine counts.

FOOTBALL.

RUGBY.

SCHOOLS' INTER-PROVINCIAL.
LEINSTER v. MUNSTER.

The following team was picked last evening at the I.R.F.U. Office to represent Leinster v. Munster at Lansdowne road next Saturday:—

Jackson (Mountjoy); R. O'Connor (Belvedere), P. J. Cunningham (Belvedere), Dart (Wesley), O'Shea (C.U.S.); W. Cunningham (Belvedere), O'Connell (Castleknock); Williams (Mountjoy) (capt.), Breen (Blackrock), O'Farrell (Blackrock), Fitkgerald (Castleknock), M. O'Connor (Blackrock), Small (St. Andrew's), O'Cleary (Blackrock), Lee (Mountjoy).

Subs.—Full, English (Castleknock); three-quarter centre or wing, Harris (High School); halves, O'Carroll and Coughlan (Blackrock); forwards, J. Power (Blackrock), Morrin (Castleknock), Falvey (Castleknock), Murray (Belvedere).

Two changes have been made from the side that defeated Ulster, O'Shea and O'Cleary coming in instead of Boylan and Power.

ATHLETICS AND CYCLING.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUNNING.

IRISH GUARDS v. CLONLIFFE HARRIERS.

All arrangements are now complete for the six-mile cross-country race next Saturday at Baldoyle, when the unbeaten Irish Guards meet the Clonliffe Harriers. The race is timed for the convenient hour of 3.30 p.m., and, in view of the interest taken in the contest, a large attendance will, no doubt, be in evidence. Each team will be represented by twelve runners, the first six of each to count. A splendid silver cup has been put up by the Mountjoy Club.

BOXING.

WILDE BEATS SMITH.

For the third time Sid. Smith, of Bermondsey, yesterday met Jimmy Wilde, the fly-weight champion, the event attracting 4,000 people to Hoxton Baths. Smith, the ex-holder of the fly-weight title, was allowed to box at 8st. 6lb., which meant that Wilde was conceding 18lb. The Welshman was a very easy winner. He hit Smith when and how he liked. Smith fell twice in the first round from left hooks. He was down again in the second, and finally took the full count in the third round.

MOTOR CYCLING.

MOTOR CYCLE UNION OF IRELAND.

The annual general meeting of the Southern Centre of the Motor Cycle Union of Ireland was held last evening at Jury's Hotel, Dame street. Mr. T. J. Dunphy, the outgoing President, being in the chair. The Hon. Sec. and Treas., Mr. A. W. Mooney, presented the report and statement of accounts for the past year, the latter of which showed a substantial balance in hands, free of all liabilities. The election of officers for the coming season resulted as follows:—President, Mr. T. W. Murphy; Vice-Presidents, the Presidents of the Dublin, Cork, and Waterford Clubs; Hon. Sec. and Treas., Mr. A. W. Mooney; Committee, the outgoing President and the delegates of the affiliated clubs. The Hon. Sec. was asked to communicate with the Ulster Centre with a view to the holding of the annual conference. It was decided to make the usual grants to each of the affiliated clubs. The delegates to the conference with the Irish Automobile Club on the subject of the government of cyclecar competitions in Ireland had before the meeting the draft of the proposed agreement between the two bodies, and it was decided to forward same to the conference in a suggestion that an effort should be made to have the suggested weight limit of 7 cwt. increased. Before the meeting concluded a vote of condolence was passed with Mr. P. H. Hurse on the death of his mother.

Your Daily Health

(Mark X) (Preserve This.)

SIGNALS OF DANGER.

These are some of the ways in which Nature warns you that it needs assistance in its work, or that the damage caused by violent, weakening medicines must be repaired. They mean that your health is not as good as it should be, and if the trouble is allowed to continue it may prepare the way for much more serious illness. It is time to set yourself right. But do not go about it violently. Take the gentle medicine which gives Nature the assistance it welcomes.

HOCKEY.

CO. DUBLIN v. CURRAGH GARRISON.

On Saturday, by permission of the Leinster Cricket Club, a match was played on the ground of the club between teams representing the leading Dublin clubs and a team from the Curragh Garrison. The match was under the patronage of the Right Hon. General Friend, C.B., and the proceeds were for the new Soldiers' Club, College street. The Curragh Garrison had to substitute three players for others originally selected, whilst the Co. Dublin team was strengthened by the inclusion of Lieutenant T. F. Perrin, the well-known Irish international centre-half, who had just returned from the trenches, Russell standing down to enable him to take part in the game. The teams were as follows:—

Curragh Garrison—Pte. Cummins (4th Leinsters); Capt. R. Dickinson (R.A.M.C.), Lieut. H. G. Le Peton (R. Dublin Fus.); Rev. W. F. Orr (Trinity), Sec. Lieut. C. A. G. Gamble (Leinster Regt.), Pte. Hutchinson (4th Leinsters); Sec. Lieut. J. H. O'Connor (R. Munster Fus.), Sec. Lieut. R. E. Warner (Leinster Regt.), Capt. B. F. O'Connor (R.A.M.C.) (capt.), Sec. Lieut. A. Delap (Leinster Regt.), Sergt. Leeson (4th Leinsters).

Co. Dublin Team—J. A. Kidd (Dublin University); G. K. Pilkington (Three Rock Rovers), J. P. Macnamara (Dublin University); R. S. Wix (Three Rock Rovers), S. Dagg (Three Rock Rovers) (capt.), Lieut T. F. Perrin (R. I. Regt.); A. Ingledew (Royal Hibernians), E. McCormack (Monkstown), D. Rowlands (Monkstown), J. W. Crawfurd (Three Rock Rovers), W. Stock (Royal Hibernians).

Umpires—W. F. M'Donnell and James S. McMahon (Irish Hockey Union).

As the afternoon proved so inclement, there was only a moderate attendance, but those present witnessed an excellent game. The Co. Dublin team started pressing, some fine work by Dagg and Perrin giving Crawfurd good openings, which he was not slow to avail of, and, backed by Stock, who centred well, he opened the scoring. From the left wing a smart bout of passing ended in Ingledew obtaining the second goal, the Royal Hibernian shooting well. One of the finest efforts of the game came when D. Rowlands, the centre-forward, put in a grand run from a pass by Perrin near mid-field, and beating the halves and backs, he got well in and registered a well-merited goal. The Curragh attacked after this, and good work by Le Peton and Gamble enabled Sergt. Leeson to open the scoring for them, the goal being followed by another by Delap.

On changing sides a lovely run by O'Connor ended in a grand goal for the Curragh team. Co. Dublin then put in some good work, Wix and Dagg passing smartly, and Crawfurd scored a fourth, while Rowlands, from a nice pass by M'Cormick, added a fifth. Dashing play by Leeson and Delap, aided by good passing by Hutchinson, Gamble, and Orr, enabled the Curragh side to add one more goal, O'Connor sending to Warner, who netted cleverly. A capital game ended with a narrow victory for the Co. Dublin team by 5 goals to 4.

The game was well contested. Kidd was the better goalkeeper, but the backs—Macnamara and Pilkington and Capt. Dickinson and Le Peton—were about equal. Co. Dublin had the better half-back line, which was to be expected, as it included Perrin, Dagg (both internationals), and Wix. The forward play was very good on both sides, the dash of Delap, who displayed great speed, and of O'Connor and Leeson being features. Crawfurd seems not to have lost any of his old-time skill, while D. Rowlands shone at centre-forward, and the centres of Stock and Ingledew, and also of M'Cormick, were generally well-timed and effective.

Daimler

ANTICIPATION

THE motorist, who in his happier moments looks forward to the joy of possessing a Daimler, is basing his wishes on the world-wide knowledge that the Daimler is the car of supreme quality and efficiency.

It is in the recognition of ideals that Daimler Engineering has attained its extremely high standard, and will maintain its pre-eminence after the war.

Realisation of the joys of motoring will come again after peace, and the possession of a Daimler.

There is a waiting list.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION FOR IRELAND.

TRAINING OF WOMEN FOR FARM WORK.

The Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction have made arrangements for a short special course of training in Farm Work for young Women who desire to offer themselves for work on farms as substitutes for men who have joined the Army for war service. This course will be given at the Munster Institute, Cork, and will be distinct from the courses of training regularly provided there.

The course will be sufficient to render a suitable young woman useful on a farm. It will also suffice to enable those who may be doubtful as to their suitability for farm labour to test their capabilities before actually entering upon service.

For particulars apply to THE SECRETARY, Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, Upper Merrion street, DUBLIN.

The Irish Times.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 1916.

The first meeting took place yesterday evening in Paris of the Allied Conference. It is understood that the delegates were chiefly concerned with the military measures necessary to secure final victory.

A supplement to the London Gazette, issued last night, contains a supplementary despatch by General Sir Ian Hamilton dealing with the operations in Gallipoli, correcting some errors in, and supplying some omissions from, his despatch of 6th January last, and referring specifically to a number of the Irish regiments engaged.

A settlement of the dispute between the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company and its seamen and firemen was effected yesterday. Captain Tupper, National Organiser of the Seamen's and Firemen's Union, attended the negotiations, and subsequently announced that the men had decided to return to work at £2 10s. per week, an increase of 5s., the men's war bonus to be paid on the same day as wages.

While a party of bomb-throwers were at practice in Dublin yesterday a bomb exploded, killing Private Christopher Mitchell, 10th Royal Dublin Fusiliers, and wounding two other soldiers.

Messrs. E. Blythe and William Mellowes, prominent Irish Volunteers, who are at present in custody at the military barracks, Arbour Hill, Dublin, have received deportation orders to leave Ireland within six days, and have been given an option to reside in specified English towns.

Thirteen men who have been arrested in connection with an attack with firearms upon the police in the Sinn Fein Hall, Tullamore, on the night of the 20th inst. were brought before the Resident Magistrate at Tullamore yesterday, and remanded in custody till April 4th.

At the Cork Assizes yesterday Lord Justice Ronan sentenced Daniel Flynn, a farmer, who lives near Banteer, to twelve months' imprisonment for having assaulted a wounded soldier in a train between Cork and Mallow in October last. Lord Justice Ronan described Flynn as a disgrace to himself and to Ireland.

Workmen clearing away the débris at the marine store of Messrs. O. and T. Gallagher, Nelson street, Belfast, which was completely destroyed by fire last Wednesday, discovered yesterday the charred remains of four more of the seven women who lost their lives in the fire.

During a blinding snowstorm on Sunday night Mrs. Elizabeth Cowan and her nine-year-old daughter, who reside at Dunmurry, Co. Antrim, were crossing the railway line at Balmoral, near Belfast, when they were cut to pieces by the Dublin express.

In London yesterday the Stock Markets were fairly good in tendency, Home Rails again being a strong department. Rubber Shares were active. Money was again in fairly urgent demand on the approaching close of the fiscal year. Overnight loans were made at 4-4¼ per cent., and weeklies at 4¼-4½ per cent. Discount rates were not very steady, and lower to quote.

In Dublin, Guinness and Marconi Shares had sharp rises, and Dublin Distillers Pref. and Ord. each fell 3s. Alliance Gas Shares rose ⅜.

The Irish Regiments.

The War Office has anticipated Mr. Redmond's question in the House of Commons to-day by the issue, as a supplement to last night's London Gazette, of a second despatch from General Sir Ian Hamilton. The first despatch was published on the 7th January. It was a long and thrilling account of the great attacks at Anzac and Suvla Bay. The Irish public read it with profound emotion, but also with profound disappointment. The despatch showed that the 10th (Irish) Division had taken part in both engagements. The evidence that it fought with magnificent dash and gallantry is abundant and convincing. The testimony of English, Scottish, and Colonial eye-witnesses, and of the war correspondents, proves that the 10th Division's work was one of the outstanding features of the operations at Suvla Bay. The fact was not to be gathered from Sir Ian Hamilton's long despatch. The exploits of English and Scottish regiments were freely (and rightly) praised. Apart from one reference to the 6th Dublin Fusiliers and another to a fine charge by a handful of the 5th Connaught Rangers, no individual Irish regiment was marked out for praise. The despatch was utterly silent about the distinguished bravery of the 7th Dublin Fusiliers at Chocolate Hill. Ireland felt that she had not received her due. It is satisfactory to learn that Sir Ian Hamilton has now come to see that he was not quite fair to his Irish soldiers. The brief despatch which we publish to-day is an act of reparation to the 10th (Irish) Division. Sir Ian Hamilton explains that the loss of so many senior officers made it difficult for him to get "authenticated facts relating to the actions and identities of some of the units which had borne the brunt of the fighting" in the Suvla Bay area. Since last December, however, "fresh light has been thrown upon several episodes hitherto obscure." It happens that nearly the whole of this fresh light gilds the bayonets of battalions of the Irish Division. "Special mention" is accorded at last to the 5th Royal Irish Fusiliers and the 7th Dublin Fusiliers for "the energy and boldness" of their attack at Chocolate Hill. In the attack on Hill 70, on the 9th August, the 6th Royal Irish Fusiliers and the 6th Dublin Fusiliers "rendered distinguished service." Tardy justice is done to the individual services of officers and men in two battalions of the Irish Division—the 6th Royal Irish Rifles and the 10th Hampshires. We welcome Sir Ian Hamilton's Postscript. It tells Ireland nothing new: it does not, because it cannot, increase her pride in her sons of the 10th Division; but it amplifies and corrects the official record of one of the most glorious chapters in Irish history.

We hope that, as a result of this despatch, there will be some additions to the Gallipoli honours list. The 10th Division, now at Salonika, is in constant communication with its friends in Ireland. We are betraying no secret when we say that their scanty share of the Gallipoli honours has greatly grieved the officers and men of the Division. Many officers who did work of vital importance were overlooked altogether; many splendid deeds by men of the rank and file remain unrecognised. We know that officers feel that in too many cases a serious injustice has been done to their non-commissioned officers and men. During the last three months Sir Ian Hamilton has received fresh light on "episodes hitherto obscure." A supplementary honours list for the 10th Division seems to be, therefore, a necessary sequel to this supplementary despatch. Certainly there will be no excuse for a repetition of the Gallipoli mistake in connection with the gallant work of the 10th Division in Serbia. The despatches and honours list for this brief, but momentous, campaign have not yet been published. We know, however, that, if our little force had been overwhelmed at Doiran, the neighbouring French force might have been involved in our calamity, and the whole course of events—so fortunate, as the result showed—might have been changed. We know, too, that our safe retreat was largely due to the gallantry of Connaughts, Munsters, and Inniskillings, and that the 6th Dublin Fusiliers held a critical point at a critical moment with the utmost bravery and coolness. We must hope—we shall assume—that the despatches and honours list will do full justice to the brilliant service of these Irish battalions. One such "afterthought" as we publish to-day is enough for a whole war—even for the greatest of all wars. The Irish regiments ask only for their due, and it is unfortunate that a series of accidents should have created the impression that they do not always get it. We have urged many times that the appointment of a special recorder of the deeds of our soldiers in France would give a valuable stimulus to recruiting in this country. Some months ago we said that Rifleman Patrick MacGill should be asked to act as an Irish "Eye-Witness." The thrilling qualities of his new book, written in the trenches—"The Red Horizon"—confirm the value of our suggestion.

Allies in Council.

The Allied Council which met for the first time in Paris yesterday is not to be confused with the Trade Conference to be held next month in the same capital. The present Council is a War Council. It is being attended by the Prime Minister, Sir Edward Grey, Earl Kitchener, and Mr. Lloyd George, for the British Government, and by representatives of the French, Russian, Italian, Belgian, Serbian, Japanese, and, possibly, Portuguese Governments. This is the first occasion when the entire body of war policy and strategy has been brought under review by a gathering which stands for the official knowledge and executive authority of the whole Grand Alliance. Such an assembly, meeting, as we may hope the Council will, at frequent intervals, is the best rejoinder which the Allies can make to that centralised and continuous control which has been Germany's most valuable asset in the war. Already those tragic days when every member of the Alliance fought her own corner with little or no reference to the resources and plans of her companions in arms are far behind us. A certain method of co-ordination has long made impossible, we may believe, those costly blunders by which the ignorance, or prejudice of one Ally hampered or frustrated the diplomatic or military effort of another. The time has gone, however, when the position and prospects of the Alliance were such that we could be thankful for the slow growth of a liaison system which merely avoided crass mistakes. The time has come to give the organisation a more positive character—to forge from the latent superiority of the Allies' resources a finely-tempered weapon which a strong thrust, a long thrust, and a thrust all together may drive home irresistibly to victory. That is the business of the Paris Council. It has to define a common plan of action, diplomatic and strategic. This must be a plan which will not merely counter the enemy's strokes, but, while it is capable of being adjusted to meet those strokes, will pursue inflexibly the settled path to success.

To the creation of such a plan of action that personal contact between the leaders of the Allies which the Paris Council provides is indispensable. The most important problems which will be handled must obviously have been discussed in advance by the various Governments. We may assume that the Council has before it a rough and general outline to which it will have to give, by common agreement, the final form. It is possible that on the return of the British representatives Mr. Asquith will make a statement in Parliament; but in any case we are not at all likely to learn much, until the appearance of results, about the business transacted and the decisions which have been reached. In so far as those decisions are strategic we may not seek to penetrate the veil of secrecy; but they can scarcely fail to have immediate effect upon the policy of our Government in regard to several questions which have recently been the subject of Parliamentary and public discussion. We may dismiss as impossible any idea that, in an association in which almost every member is putting forth her utmost effort, and bringing her contribution to the common stock of ideas on the assumption of such an effort by her partners, the British Government could impair the whole programme by announcing that, for any reason whatever, it found it necessary to diminish in the least our contemplated military effort. The first result of the Paris Council must be to compel the Government to an immediate solution of the recruiting problem in which it has gratuitously involved itself, to the grave detriment of the Allies' prospects in the decisive campaign. The meeting of the Council must result in decisions of policy no less important than decisions of strategy. Among the most pressing problems of policy is the question how best the Allies may exploit the disaffection of Germany's confederates in the east. There is in Great Britain a section of opinion—we see no evidence that such an opinion exists elsewhere—which still contemplates a "deal" with Bulgaria, after all that country's treachery. Beyond question an impression that the Allies may adopt such a policy has done our political position in the Balkans great harm. Events are rapidly moving to a crisis in the Peninsula. It will greatly clear the doubtful atmosphere in that part of the world if the Paris Council is followed by an emphatic declaration to all whom it may concern that the Allies will hold no parley with Bulgaria until her gross treachery has been soundly punished.

Turkish Distress.

Information concerning the economic situation in Constantinople has come rather freely of late from enemy sources. Two Turkish newspapers published in the capital have printed articles describing the condition of the city's food supply. One of these journals, the Tanin, is understood to be the organ of Enver Pasha and the war party, and its frankness is not a little strange. People in the capital, it says, are dying of hunger, and "black misery" prevails not only in Constantinople, but at Broussa, Angora, and Smyrna. The economic exhaustion, it goes on, is worse than the military exhaustion. Still stranger is the transmission to so important a newspaper as the Kölnische Zeitung, by its Constantinople correspondent, of long extracts from such gloomy articles, accompanied by comments even more gloomy. He sneers at the Turkish Government's plans for meeting the distress, is sceptical as to the chances of relief, and pours scorn upon the ways of the inhabitants themselves. "East and west," he sums up in his second letter, "the city is closed to supplies by the blockade. The Government newspapers admit that dire necessity prevails, and that, unless a change for the better occurs, the city will be on the brink of a serious crisis." There is no reason to suspect that this is not in the main a true account of the state of affairs in Constantinople, but why is it published to the world? Perhaps, the Government is preparing the population for a larger measure of German control, which will be hailed as a hope of rescue from all these hardships.

Sugar Supplies.

The Government purchase of eighteen million pounds' worth of sugar a few weeks after war broke out was a really good stroke of business. The supplies in the hands of the Sugar Commission in the United Kingdom at present are short, but that is merely on account of freightage difficulties. Three-quarters of the sugar imported into the United Kingdom before the war was beet sugar from the Continent, and on the outbreak of war that supply ceased. Since then we have been using cane sugar. The Government has often been urged to encourage the cultivation of sugar beet in the United Kingdom, but experts are by no means agreed as to the possibility of success, and this form of agriculture has never been adopted on a large scale. A proposal which is more likely to find favour at the present time is that the Government, if it is to intervene at all in the matter, should aid the promotion of the sugar industry within the Empire, so that the United Kingdom need never again be largely dependent on foreign supplies. Replies received from the Governments of our principal tropical possessions to a circular letter of inquiry sent out by the West India Committee show that there is more than enough sugar to meet the requirements of the United Kingdom. The Committee believes, however, that preferential treatment for a period of not less than ten years would be an essential condition of the development of the supplies of British-produced sugar to a sufficient extent.

VISCOUNT FRENCH TO VISIT DONCASTER TO-DAY.

On his way to Leeds to-day Field-Marshal Viscount French has consented to visit Doncaster. The visit will necessarily be short. The Mayor and Corporation will assemble to greet the gallant Field-Marshal, and a large number of guests have been invited to the Corporation enclosure.

LONDON CORRESPONDENCE.

153 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
MONDAY NIGHT.

Until the Admiralty sees its way to furnish fuller information regarding the seaplane raid on Schleswig-Holstein it will be impossible to say exactly what has happened, or whether the results were commensurate with the losses involved. The various independent accounts from German and Danish sources do not add much to our knowledge, though it is satisfactory to know, on the enemy's own authority, that one of his torpedo boats—which in the German Navy is the term used for any light vessel armed with torpedo tubes—has not returned.

Relations between Germany and the United States will be still further strained by the sinking of the Minneapolis. This great vessel, though sailing under the British flag, was owned by an American company. She belonged to the fleet of the Atlantic Transport Company, all the Ordinary Share capital of which was acquired in 1902 by the International Mercantile Marine Company, of New Jersey, the great ocean "combine" engineered by the late Mr. Pierpont Morgan.

Far from showing any contrition over the torpedoing of a harmless passenger steamer, the Germans are glorying over the Sussex outrage as a proof of the fact that their U boats have succeeded in evading the cordon that has for many months kept them out of the British Channel. It is unquestionably a disquieting occurrence, and suggests that the Germans have succeeded in developing some new device which enables their submarines to perform their work of destruction without coming to the surface. Many people on board the Sussex saw the track of the torpedo. Not one appears to have seen the periscope of the submarine that discharged it. Two curious facts are noted, however. One was the peculiar behaviour of a sailing ship in the neighbourhood, which made no attempt to render any assistance. The other is the appearance in the water of what looked like a white cloth about 500 feet long, which seemed to run parallel with the Sussex until she drifted away. This strange phenomenon is doubtless engaging the attention of the Admiralty experts, whom we may trust to discover efficient counter-measures to any new devilries that the Germans have devised.

It is a curious fact that Russia should now be trying to buy from Japan three of her former warships captured by Japan during the Russo-Japanese War of 1904-5. Two are battleships, of which the Poltava, sunk at Port Arthur, is one. This vessel, which was raised after the war, is armed with 12-inch guns. The third vessel is a protected cruiser, built in the United States in 1901.

Highly significant, if true, is the report from Athens that the Turks have ordered the evacuation of Konia in Asia Minor. It is an important station on the railway to Aleppo, whence the branch line to Bagdad starts, and its abandonment would indicate that the Turks were so disturbed at the Russian advance in the north of Asia Minor that they were obliged to leave Mesopotamia, Syria, and Palestine to look after themselves. For that very reason it is necessary to wait for confirmation of the report before building too much upon it.

The news that Mr. Bonar Law is to accompany Mr. Runciman to the Economic Conference in Paris as a second representative of Great Britain has given general satisfaction in the City of London. It is now felt that there is no need to press for the inclusion of Mr. Hughes in the Conference. It is not surprising that the tremendous programme that Mr. Hughes has carried out since his arrival here should have temporarily put him out of action. The Australian Premier is physically not a strong man. "If I had had a constitution," he said on one occasion, "I should have lost it long ago." A great many people will be disappointed by the cancelling of his engagements; at the Constitutional Club, for example, where he was to have been entertained at luncheon to-morrow, all the seats were disposed of some days ago.

Mr. McKenna is expected to introduce the Budget on Tuesday or Wednesday in next week. This will be a reversion to the practice of former days, when the financial statement was always made early in April. Latterly the tendency has been to postpone it till May, or even June. Mr. Lloyd George made his last appearance as a Budgeteer on May 4th, 1915, and on that occasion made no alterations in taxation, having already done what was necessary in his second Budget of 1914. Mr. McKenna, as has already been pointed out, would be quite justified by the present state of the revenue in following his predecessor's example in that respect. It is generally expected, however, that some new taxes will be announced, though, perhaps, not so many or so startling as were prophesied a few months ago.

Disappointment has been expressed in several quarters at the small yield the Treasury has announced up to date from the excess profits duty levied in the second Finance Act of last year. It is said, however, that there is no need for doubt regarding the yield of this impost, for, as the duty was ordered only late last year, the Treasury has not yet had time to gather in the full fruits. The calculation of the duty is an elaborate process; but it is certain that, when the full figures come to be published, the results will show that the impost was one well worth the trouble.

The new member for the Market Harborough Division is to take his seat to-morrow. Some confusion is likely to be caused by the fact that there is already a Percy Harris in the House in the person of the Conservative member for South Paddington, while another member of the clan is Mr. Leverton Harris, who sits for East Worcestershire. By an odd coincidence all three of them sat together in the London County Council a few years ago—Mr. H. Percy Harris and Mr. Leverton Harris as Municipal Reformers, and Mr. Percy A. Harris as a Progressive.

The trade unions are now busy taking steps towards solving the problem of restoring men to their old positions after the war. The first is the preparation of a register, in which will be recorded the names of all regular workers who have joined the Colours, and also the names of those who have remained at home, while those of all new entrants into the respective industries will be shown separately. This register is to be completed as soon as possible, and it is claimed that it will be invaluable to trade unions in enabling them to safeguard the interests of the men who have gone. The work of registration is a very heavy one for the staffs of the trade unions, but it is recognised that it is one that must be done.

T.C.D. AND THE WAR.

OFFICIAL LIST OF SERVICE.

The instalments of the Trinity College War List, as published in the Irish Times, have now reached the point to which the roll has been brought by the Editor of the War List. We shall publish further instalments as we receive them from Trinity College. We expect to be able to publish at least two instalments during the present week. They will probably bring the List to the end of the letter "S."

DISTINGUISHED INVALIDS.

Mr. Hughes, the Prime Minister of Australia, had a fair night on Sunday, and was about the same yesterday morning.

Mr. Herbert Samuel, the Home Secretary, is progressing favourably, but is still confined to bed.

THE Japanese Ambassador visited the Foreign Office yesterday afternoon, and was received by the Marquis of Crewe, who, in the absence of Sir Edward Grey, is again acting as Foreign Secretary.

GENERAL HAMILTON AND SUVLA BAY.

SUPPLEMENTARY DESPATCH.

DEEDS OF IRISH REGIMENTS.

A supplementary despatch from General Ian Hamilton, G.C.B., appears in the London Gazette of last night, correcting and amplifying in some particulars the despatch printed in the supplement to the London Gazette of 6th January last, and in the Irish Times of January 7. Sir Ian states that he was unable to set seriously to work on his despatch until after his return home at the end of October, 1915, and that, when he did so, he was hampered by his separation from his late General Headquarters. His main difficulty lay in lack of properly authenticated facts relating to the actions and identities of some of the units which had borne the brunt of the fighting. In the Suvla Bay area especially, many senior commanders had gone under one way or another that it seemed as if the story must be left half told. But now, since the despatch has been studied by many who were themselves engaged, fresh light has been thrown on several episodes hitherto obscure. He has sifted the evidence, and satisfied himself that full justice has not been done to certain individuals and units. The despatch then contains the following:—

Page 296. Substitute the words "6th Royal Irish Rifles" for the words "10th Hampshire Regiment."

Page 300. Brigadier-General Hill's 31st Brigade consisted of the 5th Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, the 6th Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, the 5th Royal Irish Fusiliers, and 6th Royal Irish Fusiliers, plus the 6th Royal Dublin Fusiliers and the 7th Royal Dublin Fusiliers, which were temporarily attached thereto. Of these battalions the Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers joined General Mahon, and were, therefore, not present during the fighting at Chocolate Hill. In addition to units already singled out for commendation, the 5th Royal Irish Fusiliers and the 7th Royal Dublin Fusiliers deserve special mention for the energy and boldness which characterised their attack.

Page 302. In the attack on Hill 70, on 9th August, the 6th Royal Irish Fusiliers and the 6th Royal Dublin Fusiliers, of the 31st Brigade (both attached to the 32nd Brigade for this day's operations), rendered distinguished service.

Page 306. The 9th Battalion Sherwood Foresters had constantly maintained stout hearts and a soldierly spirit in despite of the heavy losses they had suffered when carrying out their costly duty of closing the big gap between the left of the Anzac troops and Chocolate Hill from the 8th to 14th August. On the 21st August this same battalion, together with the 6th Battalion Border Regiment, displayed a vigorous initiative combined with very steady discipline during the attack on Ismail Oglu Tepe.

Since the publication of my despatch of 11th December the late Commanders of the 11th Division and 9th Corps have drawn attention to the good work done by the following officers:—

Brigadier-General R. P. Maxwell, commanding the 33rd Brigade. He evinced coolness as well as energy throughout the heavy fighting of August, and stuck to his duty afterwards until, through sickness, he was literally unable to stand.

Brigadier-General H. Haggard, commanding the 32nd Brigade. He was severely wounded on the 7th of August, but not before he had had time to give sure proof of leadership and daring.

The following mentions of officers of the Staff of the 29th Brigade and of the 6th Royal Irish Rifles and 10th Hampshire Regiment have only lately come to hand. The original documents seem to have gone entirely astray owing to successive casualties among the senior officers to whom they were addressed:—

GENERAL CADORNA'S MESSAGE TO LORD KITCHENER.

The following telegram was addressed to Lord Kitchener by His Excellency Lieutenant-General Count Cadorna on leaving England at the close of his recent visit:—

"I depart from your island full of emotion and gratitude for the warm reception which I have received during my short stay among you. I have been able to appreciate the grand and wonderful efforts which England is making for the noble cause to which the Allies are devoting themselves. Your firm belief in victory is also my own. I beg you to accept my most cordial greetings, and to convey to your August Sovereign the expression of my reverent homage and of my gratitude for the kindness which he was gracious... pleased to show me."

HOW AN M.C. WAS WON.

Lieutenant Bunting, of the Norfolk Regiment, who recently won his Military Cross, in a letter to a colleague (Mr. Elliott, of the Estate Duty Office, Dublin, in which Lieutenant Bunting served before joining the Army), says:—

"I went out on patrol one night with a captain of Artillery, who wanted to examine the enemy's wire at a certain point. We took with us two sergeants of my regiment and a corporal of Artillery, and when close up to the German wire, at a point about 700 yards from our trenches, we were challenged from a listening post. The enemy opened fire, and our captain was wounded almost immediately. I went to him with my two N.C.O.'s, and found he had lost consciousness, and while taking him back, when another party of Germans appeared behind their wire, intending evidently to cut us off. I dropped one with my revolver, and we did not see the others again. We then brought the captain to cover and carried him to our trenches. He died just about when we had reached them, for he had been shot through the main artery. The medical officer said that death was due to loss of blood, and nothing could have saved him. He was a notable sportsman, and had hunted with the Kildare and and South Mayo Hounds when stationed in Ireland. His name was Captain E. P. Almack. Both my N.C.O.'s have been recommended for the D.C.M."

Lieutenant Bunting was only 20 years of age when he won his distinction.

MAJOR-GENERAL HENRY S. HORNE was last night, gazetted temporary Lieutenant-General.

FROM "THE TIMES" OF TO-DAY.

(BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PROPRIETORS OF THE TIMES.)

AN ESSENTIAL WAR MEASURE.

Sir Edward Carson's return to the House of Commons will, we hope, says The Times, give cohesion and leadership to the movement for placing the business of recruiting on sound and permanent lines. He has the gift of making straight for essential issues, and that is precisely the gift which is most needed in Parliament at this moment. The amendment of the Military Service Act in such way as to apply the compulsory system with impartiality and general acceptance is an essential issue if ever there was one. Our needs as a nation require the change, and require it at once. Victory depends upon it. We lay special stress on the reform of the Military Service Act, because it is not only fundamental, but involves a clear-cut issue. The passage of an amending Military Service Bill means a definite decision for or against a thorough-going policy. There is no argument against it except obsolete prejudice, and no chance of a half-hearted compromise. It involves an act of legislation, and it specially concerns the House of Commons. That is why we welcome the return of a man of Sir Edward Carson's responsible position. He knows both the needs of the war and the difficulties of the Government, of which he has been a member. To some extent, he stands outside the old party lines, for the main work of his public life was in the nature of an independent command. It is unnecessary to hail him as the leader of an "opposition"—a post which he would certainly be the last to claim—but he has a very strong position for making himself the spokesman of a popular demand; which can only be expressed by someone outside the ranks of the Government, and as far as possible free from all considerations of party.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

The speculative markets, says The Times, were again active and buoyant yesterday. Buying of Rubber and Rand Mines and African Gold and Marconi Shares continued, and gave a lively aspect to the Stock Exchange as a whole. Home Railway Stocks also met with further support, especially the Heavy group. The number of bargains recorded was 3,430, as compared with 2,660 on Monday, last week.

TELEGRAPHIC DELAY.

In consequence of a telegraphic breakdown, we are obliged to go to press with our Financial and Market service incomplete. Our other news services have also suffered delay.

MR. REDMOND AND IRISH TAXATION.

A MISCHIEVOUS CAMPAIGN.

REPLY TO SINN FEIN TACTICS.

Mr. John Redmond has addressed the following letter to Mr. Michael Governey, J.P., of Barrowville, Carlow:—

MY DEAR MR. GOVERNEY,—I have received a letter from Mr. P. J. Bergin, of Carlow, written on behalf of a meeting at which you presided, asking my advice as to the necessity of holding a public meeting to protest against any further taxation of Ireland. I think it well to write you on this matter with the utmost possible candour.

The agitation which is now being worked up in response to an appeal from the Dublin Mansion House, of February 29th, is not calculated to strengthen the hands of the Irish Party in resisting unjust taxation. The meeting at which it was originated was admittedly called and controlled by men hostile to the Irish Party and to the constitutional movement in Ireland—men who are either avowedly pro-German or are at least opposed to recruiting in Ireland, and committed to the monstrous doctrine that Ireland should remain neutral in this war.

An agitation initiated and controlled by such men, whatever injury it may inflict upon the Irish Party, must manifestly be incapable of protecting Ireland from over-taxation or from any other injustice. The agitation, besides being mischievous, is manifestly dishonest, and I feel bound to warn those who have confidence in me against it.

Anyone who has read the report of the proceedings at the Dublin Mansion House cannot fail to realise that the ostensible objects of the movement were only a cloak for an attack on the Irish Party. The position of the Irish Party has been clear and unmistakable from the commencement of the war—that is, to support the Allies by every means in our power, believing this to be not only a just war, but Ireland's war, and that Ireland is bound in honour and patriotic duty to make any sacrifice necessary to bring it to a speedy and victorious end, and that upon this depend the future freedom, prosperity, and happiness of our people.

From the economical point of view, as well as from every other, Ireland's highest interest is speedy victory in this war. The men who seek to prejudice Ireland in the eyes of the world, by making a ridiculous claim for exemption from war taxes, are the very men who, by their apathy, their so-called neutrality, their hostility to recruiting, and their pro-Germanism, are doing their very best to prolong the war.

The function of the Irish Party is to see that the really necessary war taxation is not of such a kind as to differentiate unfairly against Ireland. This we have succeeded in doing, and this we are continuing to do. That is the position of the Irish Party, and so long as I am Chairman of the party that position will not be departed from. For the last year the Irish party have spared no exertion to protect Ireland against unjust burdens. As a matter of fact, many millions have been saved to Ireland through these exertions. We will continue to fight for Ireland's interest, and the pretence that an agitation started and controlled by pro-Germans and Sinn Feiners is needed to whip the Irish Party into doing their duty is a piece of colossal impudence.

I may add that the question of the future permanent financial settlement between Great Britain and Ireland, which must arise immediately the war is ended, and the Home Rule Act has come into operation, is one of supreme importance. To raise it now, during the war, is the worst possible service that can be rendered to Ireland. To raise it in connection with a pro-German, anti-recruiting campaign is nothing short of a crime—a crime against the Irish cause. The only conceivable security for a satisfactory settlement of this great question rests on Ireland doing her duty cheerfully and honourably during the war, and on the maintenance of a thoroughly united National Party in Ireland, to deal with this and other great questions when the war has been brought to a victorious end. For these reasons, I would deprecate the holding of any such meeting as Mr. Bergin suggests.—Yours faithfully,

(Signed) J. E. REDMOND.

To Michael Governey, Esq., J.P., Barrowville, Carlow.

QUEENSLAND AND MR. REDMOND.

Mr. Ryan, Premier of Queensland, who is a member of the Queensland Irish Association, was entertained by the Association to-day, and was asked to send a loyal and patriotic message to Mr. John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalist Party, conveying the Association's warmest appreciation of Mr. Redmond's service to the Empire and to Ireland.

Reuter's Agency learns that on the conclusion of the Allies' conference in Paris Mr. Asquith will proceed to Rome to attend a conference of the Allies in that city.

At Salonika on Sunday General Sarrail presented the Croix de la Guerre to Lord French's sister, as President of the Scottish Red Cross Society.

That is why we welcome the return of a man of Sir Edward Carson's responsible position. He knows both the needs of the war and the difficulties of the Government, of which he has been a member. To some extent, he stands outside the old party lines, for the main work of his public life was in the nature of an independent command. It is unnecessary to hail him as the leader of an "opposition"—a post which he would certainly be the last to claim—but he has a very strong position for making himself the spokesman of a popular demand, which can only be expressed by someone outside the ranks of the Government, and as far as possible free from all considerations of party.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

The speculative markets, says The Times, were again active and buoyant yesterday. Buying of Rubber and Rand Mines and African Gold and Marconi Shares continued, and gave a lively aspect to the Stock Exchange as a whole. Home Railway Stocks also met with further support, especially the Heavy group. The number of bargains recorded was 3,430, as compared with 2,660 on Monday, last week.

TELEGRAPHIC DELAY.

In consequence of a telegraphic breakdown, we are obliged to go to press with our Financial and Market service incomplete. Our other news services have also suffered delay.

MR. REDMOND AND IRISH TAXATION.

A MISCHIEVOUS CAMPAIGN.

REPLY TO SINN FEIN TACTICS.

Mr. John Redmond has addressed the following letter to Mr. Michael Governey, J.P., of Barrowville, Carlow:—

MY DEAR MR. GOVERNEY,—I have received a letter from Mr. P. J. Bergin, of Carlow, written on behalf of a meeting at which you presided, asking my advice as to the necessity of holding a public meeting to protest against any further taxation of Ireland. I think it well to write you on this matter with the utmost possible candour.

The agitation which is now being worked up in response to an appeal from the Dublin Mansion House, of February 29th, is not calculated to strengthen the hands of the Irish Party in resisting unjust taxation. The meeting at which it was originated was admittedly called and controlled by men hostile to the Irish Party and to the constitutional movement in Ireland—men who are either avowedly pro-German or are at least opposed to recruiting in Ireland, and committed to the monstrous doctrine that Ireland should remain neutral in this war.

An agitation initiated and controlled by such men, whatever injury it may inflict upon the Irish Party, must manifestly be incapable of protecting Ireland from over-taxation or from any other injustice. The agitation, besides being mischievous, is manifestly dishonest, and I feel bound to warn those who have confidence in me against it.

Anyone who has read the report of the proceedings at the Dublin Mansion House cannot fail to realise that the ostensible objects of the movement were only a cloak for an attack on the Irish Party. The position of the Irish Party has been clear and unmistakable from the commencement of the war—that is, to support the Allies by every means in our power, believing this to be not only a just war, but Ireland's war, and that Ireland is bound in honour and patriotic duty to make any sacrifice necessary to bring it to a speedy and victorious end, and that upon this depend the future freedom, prosperity, and happiness of our people.

From the economical point of view, as well as from every other, Ireland's highest interest is speedy victory in this war. The men who seek to prejudice Ireland in the eyes of the world, by making a ridiculous claim for exemption from war taxes, are the very men who, by their apathy, their so-called neutrality, their hostility to recruiting, and their pro-Germanism, are doing their very best to prolong the war.

The function of the Irish Party is to see that the really necessary war taxation is not of such a kind as to differentiate unfairly against Ireland. This we have succeeded in doing, and this we are continuing to do. That is the position of the Irish Party, and so long as I am Chairman of the party that position will not be departed from. For the last year the Irish party have spared no exertion to protect Ireland against unjust burdens. As a matter of fact, many millions have been saved to Ireland through these exertions. We will continue to fight for Ireland's interest, and the pretence that an agitation started and controlled by pro-Germans and Sinn Feiners is needed to whip the Irish Party into doing their duty is a piece of colossal impudence.

I may add that the question of the future permanent financial settlement between Great Britain and Ireland, which must arise immediately the war is ended, and the Home Rule Act has come into operation, is one of supreme importance. To raise it now, during the war, is the worst possible service that can be rendered to Ireland. To raise it in connection with a pro-German, anti-recruiting campaign is nothing short of a crime—a crime against the Irish cause. The only conceivable security for a satisfactory settlement of this great question rests on Ireland doing her duty cheerfully and honourably during the war, and on the maintenance of a thoroughly united National Party in Ireland, to deal with this and other great questions when the war has been brought to a victorious end. For these reasons, I would deprecate the holding of any such meeting as Mr. Bergin suggests.—Yours faithfully,

(Signed) J. E. REDMOND.

To Michael Governey, Esq., J.P., Barrowville, Carlow.

QUEENSLAND AND MR. REDMOND.

Mr. Ryan, Premier of Queensland, who is a member of the Queensland Irish Association, was entertained by the Association to-day, and was asked to send a loyal and patriotic message to Mr. John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalist Party, conveying the Association's warmest appreciation of Mr. Redmond's service to the Empire and to Ireland.

Reuter's Agency learns that on the conclusion of the Allies' conference in Paris Mr. Asquith will proceed to Rome to attend a conference of the Allies in that city.

At Salonika on Sunday General Sarrail presented the Croix de la Guerre to Lord French's sister, as President of the Scottish Red Cross Society.

WESTERN FIELD OF WAR.

BRITISH MINING OPERATIONS.

LULL IN MEUSE SECTORS.

ACTIVITY IN THE ARGONNE.

The British despatch mentions successful mining. After one explosion the Northumberland Fusiliers and the Royal Fusiliers assaulted the German salient at St. Eloi. The action was successfully carried out.

The Berlin report issued yesterday mentions the explosion by British of mines of "considerable sizes," which damaged the German positions on a length of 100 metres. In the Argonne and Meuse district there was a lull.

The early French report mentions mine fighting at Fille Morte in the Argonne. To the west of the Meuse there was a lull, but on the east there was violent artillery fighting. Fighting was interrupted on the Douaumont-Vaux front. In the Woevre there was also artillery work, but no infantry attacks.

The night French report states that the Germans in the region of Maucourt attempted a coup de main on the French front line trenches. In the Argonne artillery was active. West of the Meuse there has been intense bombardment. There were no infantry actions.

BRITISH DESPATCH.

ST. ELOI SALIENT CAPTURED.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE,
MONDAY, 10.8 P.M.

Last night and to-day there had been much mining activity. At La Boisselle we successfully exploded a mine south of Neuville St. Vaast, and near the Hohenzollern Redoubt there has been crater fighting, in which we were successful.

Opposite Hulluch the enemy exploded mines last night, damaging our trenches and causing some casualties. We are established on the crater formed by the explosion.

This morning, after exploding mines, the infantry of the Northumberland Fusiliers and Royal Fusiliers assaulted the German salient at St. Eloi successfully, taking the front and second line trenches on a front of some six hundred yards. Heavy casualties are known to have been caused to the enemy.

We have taken two officers and 168 men prisoners.

Artillery activity to-day has been mainly confined to the neighbourhood of Angres, Wulverghem, St. Eloi, and Wieltje.

FRENCH REPORTS.

FIGHTING INTERRUPTED AT DOUAUMONT-VAUX.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
PARIS, 3 P.M.

In Argonne there was mine fighting to our advantage at the Fille Morte, and grenade fighting in the sector Des Courtes Chaussées.

To the west of the Meuse the night was relatively calm. To the east artillery fighting was fairly violent.

Fighting was interrupted on the Douaumont-Vaux front.

In the Woevre there was a fairly violent bombardment notable in the region of Moulainville and Chatillan.

There was no infantry action. On the rest of the front the night passed off quietly.

11 P.M.

Between the Somme and the Avre, in the neighbourhod of Maucourt, after an intense bombardment, the enemy attempted a coup de main on our front line trenches.

In the Argonne the activity of our artillery continues at various points on the enemy front, especially in the sector of Bois de Cheppy. Our big guns fired on troops on the march in the direction of Exermont chatel, and then blew up a munition depôt.

On the west of the Meuse bombardment has been maintained with considerable intensity on our front, Bethincourt-Mort Homme-Cumieres, as well as to the east of the Meuse, in the region of Vaux and Douaumont.

There have been some gusts of artillery fire in the Woevre, but no infantry action.

To the north-east of Saint Mihiel we bombarded at long range the railway station and enemy depôts at Hendicourt.

South of Vignuelles a string of trucks was demolished, and a building caught fire.

GERMAN REPORTS.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
AMSTERDAM, SUNDAY.

The German communiqué to-day says:—

Western Theatre of War.—Yesterday we were able to establish the good effect of one of our mine explosions of the night before north-east of Vermelles. In the crater an enemy armoured observation post and several British dug-outs were also destroyed. North-east of Neuville a small German detachment, after a successful mine explosion, took a reconnaissance of an enemy position. It returned, according to programme, with a number of prisoners. An attempted French gas attack near Fort de la Pompelle, south-east of Rheims, had no result.

In the Argonne and the Meuse sector the artillery activity was at some points again very violent. Hand-to-hand fighting during the night in the Cailette Wood, south-east of Fort Douaumont, was successful for our troops. By considerable mine explosions north-east of Celles, in the Vosges, the enemy did himself great damage. Our position did not suffer. Near St. Quentin an undamaged British biplane fell into our hands. After an air fight, a French aeroplane fell in the Cailette Wood and was destroyed.

EFFECTIVE WORK BY BRITISH.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
AMSTERDAM, MONDAY.

The communiqué issued in Berlin to-day says:—

Western Theatre of War.—Early to-day, by the explosions of mines of considerable size, the British damaged our position near St. Eloi, south of Ypres, on a length of a hundred metres, causing some losses among the company stationed there.

In the district north-east and east of Vermelles we were successful in mine fighting, and made some prisoners.

Further to the south, near La Boiselle, north-east of Albert, our fire prevented an advance by weak British forces against our positions.

During the last few days the British again shelled the town of Lens.

In the Argonne and Meuse districts artillery fighting has temporarily slackened in violence.

GERMANS AND VERDUN.

THEIR APPALLING LOSSES.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
AMSTERDAM, MONDAY.

According to a statement that is reliably said to have come from a German officer the German losses at Verdun in killed alone have been 150,000.

The Cologne correspondent of the Tyd writes:—The terrible crowd of wounded which is again arriving at well-known German stations, and whose number recalls the worst phases of the war, is causing the hardships of war again to be felt in thousands of families. He adds that in Germany no secret is made of Germany's double aim—namely, to prevent the Entente Powers from initiating an offensive in the spring, and, secondly, to capture the pivot (Verdun) of the French front in order to be able to proceed against Paris. He quotes from an article in the Munich Allgemeine Rundschau by a German officer named Schubert, who, after pointing out that Verdun is the most vital point on the French front, adds:—We shall certainly get Verdun, but it will cost much time, trouble, and precious blood. The fall of Verdun, moreover, will only signify the end of an episode, not final victory. Verdun will, however, certainly fall, and the road to Paris be opened. But we must have patience, and must expect from the coming years of the war what 1916 cannot yet bring.

GERMAN AIR RAID ON SALONIKA.

AN EARLY MORNING VISIT.

TWO ENEMY MACHINES BROUGHT DOWN.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
SALONIKA, MONDAY.

Six German aeroplanes made a raid on Salonika at daybreak to-day, dropping twenty bombs, which caused about twenty casualties among civilians, chiefly Greeks. The material damage done was inconsiderable. The raiders were heavily fired on, but the deceptive morning light was entirely in their favour. None was seen to be struck while over the town, but two were brought down while recrossing our lines.

The Press Association's Special Correspondent at Salonika, telegraphing under yesterday's date (March 27th), says:—After nearly two months' immunity from air raids, broken only by occasional Zeppelin scares which never materialised, Salonika this morning again experienced all the thrills of aerial bombardment. The first explosions were heard at five a.m., and brought all the population to their feet. But nothing could be seen in the sky, although the hum of the motors was clearly audible. Then the searchlights picked up an Albatross, and anti-aircraft guns opened a heavy fire on other black shapes as soon as each came into sight, their tracks being dotted with the flashes of bursting shells. About twenty bombs were dropped within the town itself, and, although in some cases the targets were evidently certain sites, which were all missed in other cases bombs seemed to be dropped haphazard on purely residential quarters of the town, where they found victims among the Jews and Greeks, a couple of gipsies also being among the sufferers. It is now confirmed that one of the raiders was brought down within the British lines and another collapsed and fell into Lake Amatovo.

CONFERENCE OF ALLIES.

MOMENTOUS MEETING IN PARIS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)
PARIS, MONDAY.

The first meeting of the Allied Conference took place this morning at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. A considerable crowd gathered outside to witness the arrival of the representatives of different countries who were loudly cheered. Eight nations are represented—namely, Great Britain, Italy, Russia, Belgium, Japan, Serbia, Portugal, and France. The deliberations were naturally held with closed doors, but it is understood that the delegates devoted their attention chiefly to the discussion of military measures to be taken to secure final victory.

After the morning meeting of the Conference M. Briand entertained at luncheon all the Allied Plenipotentiaries, civil and military; the Ambassadors and Ministers of Allied States, and the President and Vice-Presidents of the Senate and Chamber.

Never in history have so many Allied nations met together to confer on the measures to be taken against a common enemy as to-day at the Quai d'Orsay. The room in which the Conference was held to-day is already historic. It was the scene of the Peace Conference after the Spanish-American War, and further back, in 1856, it was there that Cavour represented his country when Italy was admitted among the Great Powers. The arrangement of members at this memorable Conference is worth recording. They were seated in groups, according to their respective countries. At the head of the long green table were the French delegates, in order, from left to right, as follows:—M. Bourgeois, General Roques, M. Briand, Admiral Lacaize, and General Joffre. At the opposite end of the table, in the same order, sat General Sir William Robertson, and then the Italian representatives—Signor Salandra, Signor Tittoni, Baron Sonnino, and General Cadorna. On the left side of the table, beginning next to M. Bourgeois, were M. Thomas and M. Julies Cambon (France), then the three Belgian representatives—M. de Broqueville, Baron Beyers, and M. Vielemans; followed by the British representatives—Mr. Asquith, Sir F. Bertie, Sir E. Grey, Mr. Lloyd George, and Lord Kitchener. On the right side of the table, beginning next to General Joffre, sat General Castelnau; then the four Serbian members—M. Rasitch, M. Jovanovitch, M. Vestnitch, and M. Pasitch. Next came General Gilinsky and M. Isvolsky, Russia; M. Matsui, Japanese Ambassador in Paris; and General Dall Olio, Italy.

The meeting this morning is understood to have been given up to military matters, and that of the afternoon to economic questions connected with the war. The transactions will be kept secret, but official bulletins will be issued.

THE SHACKLETON EXPEDITION.

A meeting of the official representatives of Sir Ernest Shackleton's expedition was held in London yesterday afternoon at the offices of Messrs. Hutchison and Cuff, solicitors to the expedition. Lady Shackleton and Mrs. Mackintosh (wife of the commander of the Aurora who has been stranded on Ross Sea barrier by the drifting away of the ship) were present.

The report of Mr. Stenhouse, of the breaking away of the Aurora, was considered, and it was decided that steps must be immediately taken to commence the organisation of a relief expedition to Ross Sea, to rescue the explorers left there. It was stated that news of the disaster had been communicated to the King immediately it was known, and that all facts now available were being brought to the notice of the Government and the Royal Geographical Society.

Information was being collected as to the amount of stores left at Captain Scott's old headquarters, which would be at the disposal of the party if they had succeeded in making it, and attempts were being made to send wireless instructions to Mr. Stenhouse, to forward details of the stores and sledging equipment landed from the Aurora at the earliest moment. Until the Endurance had been spoken, and it was known whether Sir Ernest Shackleton and his party were on board, or had been landed at Weddell Sea—base for their Trans-Continental march—it could not be said whether there would have to be a second relief ship sent there. In the meantime it is desired to acknowledge the large number of messages of sympathy addressed to relatives of leaders and members of the expedition, and to request that all communications should be addressed to the solicitors at 6 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, W.C.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
WELLINGTON, MONDAY.

A wireless message has been received from the Aurora which, at the time of the despatch of the message, was six hundred miles south of New Zealand. It states that the ship does not require assistance and expects to arrive off New Zealand early in April.

OBITUARY.

SURGEON-COLONEL W. H. GARDE.

The death occurred at Sidmonton square, Bray, on Saturday, of Surgeon-Colonel William Henry Garde, late R.A.M.C. Colonel Garde, who was the eldest son of the late Mr. William Garde, of Bilberry, Midleton, was the representative of an old County Cork family. He served with the Soudan Expedition in 1884-5, and received the medal with clasp and the bronze star.

The death occurred suddenly, during Sunday night, at Evercreech, Somerset, of Major Charles Davis Sherston, formerly of the Rifle Brigade, a nephew of the late Lord Roberts. He was sixty-one years of age.

PRICE OF BREAD REDUCED IN LONDON.

Mr. F. C. Finch, Secretary of the London Master Bakers' Protection Society, stated yesterday morning that the decision of the leading bakers in London to reduce the price of the quartern loaf from 9½d. to 9d. yesterday was accepted generally. He added that it was possible that in a few days the uniform price of the quartern loaf would be 8½d.

THE AIR ATTACK ON SCHLESWIG.

GERMANS CLAIM CAPTURE OF THREE MACHINES.

ENEMY DESTROYER SUNK IN FRISIAN COAST FIGHT.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
AMSTERDAM, SUNDAY.

The communiqué issued in Berlin to-day states:—

Five British seaplanes from two parent ships, accompanied by a cruiser squadron and destroyer flotilla early yesterday morning rose to attack our airship buildings in Northern Schleswig.

No less than three battle aeroplanes were forced to descend on and east of the Isle of Sylt by our anti-aircraft service, which had been forewarned.

Four British officers and one non-commissioned officer were captured.

Bombs were only dropped near Hoyer Sluice, and no damage was done.

AMSTERDAM, MONDAY.

The following official communiqué, issued yesterday by the German Admiralty Staff, has been received from Berlin:—

This morning British naval forces assisted in an aerial attack on the northern part of the North Frisian coast.

The air attack completely failed, as already reported in the Army communiqué of to-day.

Two armed trawlers on outpost duty fell victims to the enemy vessels.

Our seaplanes attacked the British naval forces, and obtained a number of hits.

One destroyer was badly damaged. Of our naval forces which were at once sent out only some torpedo boats on the night of the 25th encountered the retiring enemy.

One of these torpedo boats has not yet returned.

FOUR AIR OFFICERS AND ONE N.C.O. CAPTURED.

The Admiralty announces:—The following four officers and chief petty officer of the Royal Naval Air Service are reported to be missing after the attack of Saturday by British seaplanes upon the German airship sheds in Schleswig-Holstein:—

Flight Lieutenant George H. Reid, R.N.; Flight Sub-Lieutenant John F. Hay, R.N.; Flight Sub-Lieutenant Cyril G. Knight, R.N.; Midshipman Stanley E. Hoblyn, R.N.R.; Richard Mullin, C.P.O. Mechanic.

It should be noted that the number reported missing tallies with the German official statement published in the Press yesterday (Monday), that four English officers and one non-commissioned officer had been taken prisoners.

TULLAMORE SHOOTING AFFAIR.

CHARGE AGAINST SINN FEIN VOLUNTEERS.

THIRTEEN PRISONERS, REMANDED.

(FROM OUR REPORTER.)
TULLAMORE, MONDAY.

To-day the thirteen persons who have been arrested by the police in connection with the shooting affair which occurred in Tullamore on the night of the 20th instant were brought before Mr. Walter Callan, R.M., in the Courthouse here.

The names of the accused are:—Joseph Wrafter, Joseph Morris, Thomas Byrne, Henry McNally, Francis Brennan (20), John Delany (20), James Clarke (18), Joseph Graham (20), Thomas Hogan, Edward Downes (16), John Martin (16), John Spain (16), and Thomas Duggan, labourer.

The charge against them is that in the rooms of the Sinn Fein Volunteers they shot at County Inspector Crane, District Inspector Fitzgerald, Head Constable Stewart, and Sergeant Ahern, of the Royal Irish Constabulary, with intent to kill.

Mr. Charles Power (instructed by Mr. James Rogers) appeared for the accused. He made application to the magistrate to allow the friends and relatives of the accused, who were kept out by the police, to be present in court.

District Inspector Fitzgerald, in the interests of justice, opposed the application, and the magistrate said he thought that at the present stage of the proceedings no good purpose could be served by throwing the court open to all.

District Inspector Fitzgerald, who had made a previous deposition, now added that he was not in a position to offer the evidence which would be given later on against the accused. The reason of that was that Sergeant Ahern, who had been seriously wounded in the affray on the night of the 20th inst., was still confined to bed in Steevens's Hospital, Dublin, and that his life was not yet out of danger. Sergeant Ahern would be an important witness. He (witness) was in the Sinn Fein hall on the night of the 20th inst., when the prisoners gave their names and addresses to Sergeant Ahern, and when the sergeant took them down in writing. The prisoners were subsequently participators in the attack on him (witness) and all the policemen in the room that night. The District Inspector applied that the prisoners should be remanded.

In answer to Mr. Power, the witness said that there were fifteen persons in the Sinn Fein hall that night. He had other evidence besides that of Sergeant Ahern, but he was not prepared to give it to-day. The normal strength of the police force in the town was (besides the County and District Inspectors) sixteen men.

Mr. Power applied that the accused be allowed out on bail.

District Inspector Fitzgerald opposed the application.

The Magistrate said that this was but a preliminary investigation, and he had not yet heard the evidence against the prisoners. The charge against them was a serious one. He understood that between twenty and thirty shots had been discharged in the hall that night, and that eight or ten revolvers were fired. At present, therefore, he could not accede to the application.

The prisoners were remanded till Tuesday, April 4th.

IRISH VOLUNTEER ORGANISERS.

DEPORTATION ORDERS.

Messrs. Ernest Blythe and Liam Mellowes, organisers of the Irish Volunteers, have, it is stated, been notified that they must choose for residence some place in the Midlands of England, within six days, and that, if they do not select a place of residence within the districts specified by the military authorities they will be forcibly deported from Ireland at the end of the period. Mr. Alfred Monaghan, who has been organising the movement in Co. Galway, has received a similar intimation. Messrs. Blythe and Mellowes are in military custody at Arbour Hill Barracks.

FUTURE OF DUBLIN PORT.

An interesting lecture on the "History and Development of the Port of Dublin" was delivered last night to the members of the Rotary Club, at the Engineers' Hall, Dawson street, by Sir John Griffith, late Chief Engineer of the Port and Docks Board. Having given a detailed history of the port, the lecturer asked were they doing what was necessary to ensure that Dublin should be the national gateway for the commerce of Ireland. Were their ports to be managed as national assets or as perquisites of particular trades or carrying companies? He (Sir John Griffith) unhesitatingly said that the port of Dublin was an Irish national asset, and he trusted that when Home Rule came into force this view would be taken by the Irish Parliament.

CROSSED THE ATLANTIC 1,100 TIMES.

Mr. T. Kinsey, Purser of the American Line mail steamer St. Paul, which arrived at Liverpool yesterday from New York, has retired after crossing the Atlantic 1,100 times. His sea experience dates back to 1853, and in addition to his Atlantic record he served on the steamers engaged in transport work during the Crimean War, Indian Mutiny, and Abyssinian Expedition, and also as Paymaster in the American War. In this vessel Mr. Kinsey made thirty-five Trans-Atlantic passages in one year.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
PETROGRAD, MONDAY.

The following communiqué from Great Headquarters is is published to-day:—

Fighting west and south of the Augustinhof front, in the region of Jacobstadt, continues.

Flights of German aviators along the whole Dvinsk front are growing more frequent, and at Dvinsk they dropped twenty bombs.

In the region to the north-west of Postavy our troops, after a desperate struggle, captured two lines of enemy trenches.

The offensive of our troops in the region between Lakes Narocz and Vischnevskoye met with obstinate resistance.

The enemy dropped bombs on the station of Stolbtzi and at Raibanovo, south-west of Minsk.

On the rest of the front operations are developing.

In the Black Sea one of our submarines, under the fire of the batteries of Zunguldah, sunk a steamer towing a string of barges laden with coal, which were about to make the land.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)
AMSTERDAM, MONDAY.

The Berlin communiqué states:

Against the front of Field-Marshal von Hindenburg the Russians yesterday renewed the attacks with special violence. Thus they employed against the German lines north-west of Jacobstadt such masses of men and ammunition as has not hitherto been known in the Eastern theatre of war. They suffered corresponding losses without gaining any success.

Near Welikoj Eselo, south of Widsy, our advanced troops had a successful encounter, in which they captured 57 prisoners and two machine guns. Repeated efforts by the enemy against our positions north-west of Postawy completely failed. South of Lake Narotch, after repeated strong attacks by portions of the Third Russian Army Corps had been repulsed, West Prussian regiments counter-attacked near Mokrzyce in order to recapture the artillery observation posts which were lost on March 20 when we withdrew our front. Our brave troops completely accomplished the task, and in the course of this operation and in the repulse of enemy attacks captured 21 officers, 2,140 men, and a number of machine guns.

Our airmen bombarded the railway station of Dunaburg (Dvinsk), railway bridges at Wilejka, and the Baranowitche-Minsk line.

FATAL BOMB ACCIDENT IN DUBLIN.

SOLDIER KILLED, TWO OTHERS INJURED.

A squad of men in A Company 10th (Commercial) Battalion of the Royal Dublin Fusiliers were practising bomb-throwing yesterday near Island Bridge Barracks, when a live bomb fell back into the trench from which the men were throwing. Private Christopher Mitchell, aged 20, received fatal abdominal injuries, Private Horgan was severely injured in the right arm and hand, and Private M'Loughlin is suffering from shock. The three men were taken to King George V. Hospital.

SPECIAL EXTRA.

NAVAL ACTIVITY IN THE NORTH SEA.

(TIMES WAR TELEGRAM, PER PRESS ASSOCIATION.)
COPENHAGEN, MONDAY.

Travellers who have arrived at Ribe say that a German aeroplane was hit on Saturday, and that the damaged machine was taken to Tondern by motor car in the afternoon. Their reports of airmen brought down at Hoeer and Daezhull are, however, at variance with the German official statement, which gives Sylt as the place. A barn is said to have been destroyed at Randerup (? Braderup, south of Tondern). Reports from Esbjerg are contradictory and diffuse, but the following seems to be trustworthy—A British squadron of destroyers tried to intercept four German destroyers, which left Sylt on Friday, and four of the British destroyers overtook the armed trawlers, Braunschweig and Otto Rudolf. The Germans called five cruisers, twenty destroyers, five seaplanes, and Zeppelin L 14 from Heligoland. In the afternoon Danish trawlers hailed eleven German cruisers and other vessels, and further west met a British squadron of forty ships, steering westwards. The operations were difficult, owing to a violent gale and snow showers. The authorities at Esbjerg have taken the necessary measures for maintaining neutrality.

GERMANS FORCED TO RETIRE.

It is officially confirmed, says the Salonika correspondent of the Morning Post, that the Germans have been forced to retire over the frontier from all the points occupied by them in Greek territory.

PREPARING A FRESH PUSH ON VERDUN.

Mr. John N. Raphael, the London Daily Express special correspondent in Paris, says—The lull on the Verdun battle front continues, but the signs of the last twenty-four hours point to the fact that the enemy is preparing a fresh attack of greater violence than ever. The bombardment by the big guns is particularly heavy west of the Meuse, from the village and wood of Malancourt all along the French second line. It is quite possible that this indicates a pending infantry attack. Prisoners recently taken talk of the intense and bitter irritation of the Germans at the lack of success at Verdun.

QUEEN OF SWEDEN ILL.

Queen Victoria of Sweden is ill, reports the Daily Telegraph correspondent at Stockholm. Her physicians recommend a sojourn in Southern countries, and she leaves Stockholm at the beginning of April for Karlsruhe.

GERMANY AND THE SUSSEX.

ATTEMPT TO PLACATE AMERICA.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
NEW YORK, MONDAY.

The Washington correspondent of the Associated Press announces authoritatively that it is believed in Germany that the Sussex was the victim of a mine, but if it be proved that she was the victim of a submarine the Commander of that craft was guilty of a violation of orders, and Germany will be willing to disavow the act and punish the Commander. The correspondent also intimates that Count Bernstorff had a good deal to do with the retirement of Admiral von Tirpitz, whose views on submarine warfare conflicted with his own. The correspondent adds that no information can be obtained as to the attitude of American officials towards the above explanation. It undoubtedly emanated from the German Embassy, and is an attempt to placate American feeling.

ASSAULT ON A WOUNDED SOLDIER.

TWELVE MONTHS' IMPRISONMENT.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)
CORK, MONDAY.

Lord Justice Ronan sat in the city court this morning, and resumed the business of the Assizes.

Daniel Flynn, Dromcomner, Banteer, a farmer, who was convicted of an assault on a wounded soldier in the corridor of a third class carriage on October 7th, 1915, while journeying from Cork to Mallow, was put forward for sentence.

Mr. J. F. Moriarty (instructed by Mr. J. J. Lenihan, solicitor, Kanturk), who defended, examined the Rev. James W. Green, P.P., of Castlemagner, who gave the prisoner a good character, remarking that he went on occasional "sprees," and then became odd and irresponsible.

Mr. Moriarty read a letter from the Kanturk Recruiting Committee, which stated that prisoner was not a pro-German.

Dr. Wynne (Crown Solicitor) read a list of convictions against prisoner for assaulting the police and other offences.

Lord Justice Ronan said that when he came to Cork for the last Summer Assizes, as a Corkman he had the honour of shaking hands with Lieutenant O'Leary, V.C., of whom every man in Ireland was proud. He regretted that on his next visit to his own county he found it distinguished by the only case which had occurred since the beginning of the war of a wounded soldier being treated with brutality. The lady who was accompanying the soldier had her modesty outraged by the prisoner's behaviour. The prisoner was a disgrace to himself and a disgrace to Ireland, and he was glad to hear that there were no children to whom that disgrace could be transmitted. He hoped for prisoner's sake that the wounded soldier would not die from the injuries inflicted upon him on that day in the train. If he did he would have to face a trial for homicide. The poor fellow was out fighting to enable the prisoner to enjoy peace and the profits of his farm at home. Every witness in the case agreed that the prisoner was not drunk and incapable, but was in the full possession of his faculties.

Prisoner—I was blind drunk, your honour.

His Lordship said that he did not believe one word of that. The prisoner would go to jail for twelve months, with hard labour.

DUBLIN SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

SETTLEMENT EFFECTED.

The dispute between the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company and its firemen and seamen, which has lasted four months, was settled yesterday. At a meeting of the men at Commons street, Dublin, Captain Tupper, national organiser of the Seamen's and Firemen's Union, announced that the men had decided to return to work at £2 10s. a week, an increase of 5s. The terms were acceptable to the company, who had agreed to pay wages and war bonus on the same day, instead of on different days, as previously.

A crew was signed on yesterday, and an early resumption of sailings is expected. The men struck in sympathy with the quay labourers, members of the Transport Workers' Union, but have not received strike pay, having ceased work before consulting their union. The decision does not affect the position of the quay labourers.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, CORK.

The Governing Body of University College, Cork, under power of the Irish Universities Act, 1908, has passed a Statute revoking Clause 1 (2) of Statute IV. University College, Cork, and substituting a provision that—There shall be the following Lectureships in the College:—In Ancient Classics, in History or Education, in Modern Irish, in Materia Medica, in Mental Diseases, in Architecture, in Electrical Technology, in Accounting, in Spanish, in Dental Surgery, in Dental Mechanics, in Veterinary Hygiene; provided that during the tenure of office of the present Professor of Materia Medica there shall be a Professorship of Materia Medica, and the Professor of Therapeutics and the Lectureship in Materia Medica shall remain in abeyance. On the occurrence of the first vacancy in the Professorship of Materia Medica there shall be no longer a Professorship of Materia Medica, but there shall be a Professorship of Therapeutics and a Lectureship in Materia Medica. Other clauses deal with modifications in the stipends of Professors.

SUBMARINE WAR.

MORE SHIPS SUNK.

CASE OF THE SUSSEX.

POSITION OF UNITED STATES.

In Washington the sinking of the Englishman and the Sussex is viewed with the greatest gravity, and the possibility of a rupture with Germany is discussed.

A number of the Sussex passengers have been landed at Boulogne, and it is announced that Professor and Mrs. Baldwin are safe, and that all the American passengers are now accounted for.

The Sussex carried a large mail.

Yesterday's list of submarine victims includes the names of six craft ranging from fair-sized steamers to trawlers sunk, and one injured.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)
WASHINGTON, MONDAY.

Officials here do not attempt to conceal the fact that they view the situation created by the sinking of the Englishman and the Sussex as one of the utmost gravity. The possibility of breaking off diplomatic relations with Germany is again being discussed. Whether drastic action will be decided on or not appears to depend on the results of inquiries to be made by American representatives in Europe, who have been urged to secure, if possible, conclusive evidence in the matter. The opinion prevails that before taking action President Wilson will lay the situation before Congress, for it is believed that the breaking off of diplomatic relations with Germany would probably mean war.

The American Embassy announces that all the twenty-five American passengers on the Sussex are now accounted for. They are safe.

PARIS, MONDAY.

Telegrams from Boulogne mention that an American lady and gentleman have arrived at the local hotel, and it is reported that they are Professor Baldwin, the American Psychologist, and Mrs. Baldwin, rescued from the Sussex. A letter received in Paris to-day by Mr. Donald Harper, a friend of the Professor, dated Wimereux, Saturday, says:—Dear Harper, knowing you knew we were coming on Friday, the 24th, I write to tell you we are all safe, but Elizabeth (the Professor's daughter) seriously injured. We are here with her in hospital. Will you kindly spread the news there.

FURTHER LIST OF SUNKEN STEAMERS.

A Lloyd's Dover message, dated Sunday, says:—The steamer St. Cecilia (not Cecilia) has been sunk; the crew were saved.

Another account states that the steamer St. Cecilia, Portland (Maine) for London, with general cargo, was mined on Sunday afternoon. The steamer was sunk, and the crew saved.

Lloyd's report that the steamer Minneapolis has been sunk. All were rescued, except eleven killed.

Lloyd's report that the British steamer Cerne has been sunk. The crew, consisting of six officers and seventeen men, have been landed.

The French steamer Hebe has been sunk. Of the crew of eighteen, ten were landed. The remainder are believed to have been picked up by a British steamer bound south.

The British fish carrier Khartoum, of Hull, has been sunk. Two survivors have been picked up; the remaining nine of the crew, it is feared, have been drowned.

Lloyd's report that the Danish steamer Harriet has been damaged. There are no casualties. She has been taken in tow.

Lloyd's Agency states that the steamer Manchester Engineer has been sunk. The captain and crew are coming to Queenstown on board the tug Stormcock.

THE INQUEST.

An inquest was held at Dover yesterday on three of the victims of the disaster to the cross-Channel steamer Sussex. They were—Mrs. Louise Bastin, Guiseppa Gaja, and Maurice Blankeart.

Mr. Charles Crocker, of Fitchbury, who was a passenger on the Sussex, said that all went well until about three o'clock, when a big explosion took place forward. Débris was hurled into the air, and a large quantity of water broke over the vessel, washing people off their feet. A slight panic occurred for a few minutes. Witness put on two lifebelts, and the tapes of each broke. He put lifebelts on women and children, and the tapes of these also broke. At first there were not enough lifebelts, but later some new ones were brought up, and these were all right. The ship drifted along, the engines having been stopped, and she listed a little. No rescue boats came near until 11.30 p.m. Witness proceeded — There was a terrible rush for the boats. They were overloaded, and people had to be taken out before the boats could be lowered. Rafts were thrown to the people in the water, some of whom were helped up by ropes. Afterwards we went to the bows. The two decks were blown clean away. We found three dead. About 10.30 a small French boat came up and took off most of the passengers. I assisted with the wounded, and they were got aboard the destroyer. I came with them to Dover, leaving the vessel about 2.30 on Saturday morning. Two boats which had left the Sussex came back to the ship. Witness added that at the finish there were enough lifebelts for all. He heard others speak about the condition of the lifebelts.

In summing up, the Coroner said that the matter of lifebelts and lifeboats would be dealt with elsewhere.

The jury returned a verdict that the deceased persons died from injuries received as the result of the ship being torpedoed.

The Coroner and the jury thanked Mr. Crocker for attending the inquiry.

A fourth death has taken place in Dover Hospital.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

SHAKESPEARE IN DUBLIN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—Mr. Rossiter points out in your issue of to-day that the Dublin Branch of the British Empire Shakespeare Society intends to honour the memory of Shakespeare by performances of "Hamlet" on the 7th and 8th April, and by a lecture to be delivered by the President of the Branch, the Right Hon. Mr. Justice Madden. May I supplement the information by saying that the Society has also received a promise of a lecture by the Right Hon. Dr. Starkie on "The Wit and Humour of Aristophanes, Molière, and Shakespeare"?—Yours, etc.,

W. H. ORPEN, Hon. Secretary.

Wood Berry, Merrion road, Dublin, March 27th, 1916.

WASTE PAPER.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—The Corporation of Dublin seems to have made wise arrangements for the collection of waste paper, and I venture to think that County Councils and other local bodies ought to follow suit. I live in a seaside village, almost (but not quite) large enough to have an Urban Council; if we had one, I should never let its members rest until they had followed Dublin's example. Our roads and lanes and all our open spaces are littered with torn and dirty papers, printed or for packing, which are an eyesore and a public nuisance. Now that we are exhorted on all hands to save paper, as well as to cut down our food, drink, clothing, lighting, and locomotion, can nothing be done to abate this grievance?—Yours, etc.,

"PIERRE LE GRIS."

Co. Wicklow, March 25th, 1916.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I think it might encourage those of the poorer classes, and their children, to collect pieces of paper, so often thrown about the streets and elsewhere, if a small sum of money were given for every fully packed sack—say, 2d. or 3d. A numbered ticket could be given for every bag collected, and when six or four bags were filled 1s. would be given. Those who did not wish for the money need not take a ticket. This might also be the means of keeping the streets cleaner.—Yours, etc.,

T. LE VRAYE.

WAR NOTICES AND APPEALS.

TOBACCO FOR WOUNDED SOLDIERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—It is perhaps, not as widely known to the public as it might be that, by special concession recently granted, tobacco (in amounts of not less than 20lbs.) or cigarettes (in amounts of not less than 8lbs.) may be ordered, either direct from the manufacturers or through any tobacco merchant, free of duty for distribution and use exclusively amongst wounded soldiers in our hospitals. By special regulations with the Customs, all such orders must be consigned to the Red Cross Society for such particular hospital as each donor may wish to benefit. The Society is also required to exercise such effective control in regard to the quantity of tobacco or cigarettes issued to any particular hospital, as will insure that the quantities issued are not excessive, having regard to the number of inmates in that hospital. We suggest, therefore, that intending donors should communicate with us before giving their orders.

We have now a special depôt and department for this purpose, and are prepared to receive and distribute any such consignments. The concession is a generous one and affords an opportunity, that should not be neglected, of obtaining tobacco for the wounded soldiers at a greatly reduced cost.—Yours, etc.,

DENIS R. PACK BERESFORD, Hon. Secretary, British Red Cross Society (Co. Dublin Branch).

THE LAW COURTS.

DUBLIN LADY'S WILL.

In the Probate Court yesterday, before Mr. Justice Madden, in the matter of the will of Francis Barker Drury, who died on 17th January, 1915, at 33 Northumberland road, Dublin, leaving assets of about £12,000,

Mr. Henry, K.C., with whom was Mr. Swayne (instructed by Mr. G. M. Meares) applied on behalf of Mr. Richard V. Lynam, 7 Hume street, Dublin, solicitor, and Mr. George Drury, Royal terrace, Kingstown, retired naval officer, the executors, for an order fixing the time and mode of trial of a suit to establish the will of the deceased of 9th October, 1912. Mrs. Eva Wilson, the defendant, seeks to propound an earlier will, to which the plaintiffs had pleaded revocation.

Mr. Bodkin (instructed by Messrs. Miley and Miley) appeared for the defendant.

Mr. Justice Madden fixed the hearing for 2nd May, before a judge and special jury.

CLAIM TO CARLOW LANDS.

Yesterday, in the Chancery Division, before Mr. Justice Barton, in the case of Carlow U.D.C. v. Hartstonge Weld,

Mr. Sealy (instructed by Mr. Maffett) applied on behalf of Mrs. Georgina E. Cornwall Hartstonge Weld, the defendant, of Myshall House, Myshall, County Carlow, for an order directing that a sum of £217 6/4, in Court, should be invested in 4½ per cent. War Loan Stock, and that the dividends should be paid from time to time to her. The money had been lodged in Court under the Lands Clauses Act, and was the amount of compensation awarded in respect of certain lands acquired by the Carlow Urban District Council for the erection of labourers' cottages at Castlehill, near Carlow, to which Mrs. Weld claimed to be entitled as tenant for life under a settlement of 1878.

Mr. J. O'Byrne (instructed by Mr. P. J. Byrne) opposed the application on behalf of the Council. Mrs. Weld, he submitted, had shown no title to these lands whatever under the settlement mentioned. There were a considerable number of other estates relating to the property, including estates tail, prior to Mrs. Weld's life interest, and it had not been shown that these estates had determined.

Mr. Justice Barton made an order directing that the money should be invested in War Loan, stating that he would make no order for payment of dividends at present, and reserve the question of costs.

D.M.P. SERGEANT'S ESTATE.

Yesterday in the Chancery Division, before the Master of the Rolls, the matter of the estate of Martin Ward, deceased, Catherine Ellen Ward v. Thomas Joseph Ward and others, came before the court on further consideration of the Chief Clerk's certificate. The deceased was a pensioner of the Dublin Metropolitan Police, in which he had held the rank of sergeant. He died intestate on September 10th, 1914.

Mr. Lardner, M.P. (instructed by Mr. James Brady) appeared for the plaintiff, who is the widow of the deceased by a second marriage. The defendants were all children of the first marriage. Counsel said that within six months before his death there was on deposit receipt in the Royal Bank to the credit of the deceased a sum of £1,000, and £800 of it had got into the hands of Thomas J. Ward, one of the defendants. On the 2nd September, 1914, shortly before his death, the deceased assigned by deed all his leasehold property to Thomas J. Ward, and the plaintiff had brought proceedings to set the deed aside. Counsel asked that an issue should be tried as to whether the £800 formed part of the assets of the deceased.

Mr. J. H. Russell (instructed by Messrs. Toomey and Barber) appeared for the defendant, Mr. Thomas J. Ward; and Mr. Bartley (instructed by Messrs. Sutton and Son) appeared for the other defendants, with the exception of Michael Ward, who was not represented.

The Master of the Rolls made an order declaring the plaintiff entitled to her costs, and reserved the costs of the defendants. He directed an inquiry as to whether any, and if so what, part of the sum of £800 formed part of the estate of the deceased, and who was liable to account for it. He also directed that £200 in the bank be brought in the credit of the suit, and that the plaintiff should collect from the insurance company the amount of an insurance policy on the life of the deceased.

JUDICIAL TENANCY IN CITY OF DUBLIN.

Yesterday in the Chancery Division, before Mr. Justice Barton, in the case of Cass v. Moran and another,

Mr. Sealy (instructed by Messrs. Maxwell, Weldon and Co.) applied on behalf of the defendants for an order staying further proceedings in the action on the ground that the action was frivolous and vexatious, or in the alternative transferring the further proceedings to the Recorder of Dublin. The action is brought by Mrs. Esther Cass, wife of Patrick Cass, cattle dealer, of 1 Orchard road, Clonliffe road, and Donnelly's Orchard, Dublin, against Messrs. J. J. Moran and Daniel A. Kelly, of 40 North Great George's street, Dublin, to obtain a declaration that the tenancy of the plaintiff in the lands of Clonliffe East, Barony of Coolock, Dublin, containing 3a. 3r. 10p., is a valid and subsisting tenancy at the yearly rent of £25, fixed by the Irish Land Commission in June, 1884, and that the plaintiff is in occupation of the lands as tenant, and also an injunction restraining the defendants from trespassing on the lands or procuring the Sheriff, his agents, or servants to enter upon them by virtue of any legal process to which the plaintiff was not a party. The lands were held by a man named Donnelly up to his death, about four years ago, when he owed six or seven years' rent. His children, David, Francis, Edith, and Lilly, remained in occupation of the holding, and the defendants, who were the landlords, eventually obtained an ejectment decree for non-payment of rent, 13½ years' rent being due. A great number of people were present at the eviction. Prominent members of the Town Tenants' League attended; and he understood there was some opposition.

Mr. Justice Barton—Is this a town holding?

Mr. J. A. Ronayne (instructed by Mr. E. M'Hugh), who appeared for the plaintiff, said it was not. It was the only judicial holding in the city.

Mr. Justice Barton adjourned the application for a week for the purpose of enabling the plaintiff to file an affidavit.

MUNSTER.

Entire Police Force Volunteers.—At the Petty Sessions Court held at Foynes, County Limerick, on Thursday Mr. R. Coplan Langford, J.P., mentioned the loyal and patriotic example of Sergeant J. C. Johnston, R.I.C., and Constables Cregan, Moran, and Minnock, at Shanagolden, in volunteering for active service at the front. The R.I.C. had always been true to their King and country, and in this great time of need he trusted their example would be followed by others. Mr. P. D. Sullivan, R.M., concurred in all that Mr. Langford had said, and remarked that it was the first time that all the R.I.C. in one barrack had volunteered for active service.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

GAIETY THEATRE.

It is to be hoped that the invasion of the Gaiety Theatre by variety turns is not to result in more than temporary occupation, for good as are the "slight impression" and "little song" which Miss Jane Fowler gives before the play, they are quite out of keeping with it. The audience last night became annoyed at the resulting tedious interval while the scene was set for "A Pair of Silk Stockings," to which they were looking forward with impatience. Expectations were fully met by the play, which is something more than is connoted by its description as a comedy. While the play is quite humorous, and, indeed, witty in its obiter dicta, it has some features which resemble drama without approaching any problems. Its construction is good, and the developments occur naturally, and without straining the limits of probability. It would be unkind to spoil enjoyment of the plot by revealing it, but curiosity will be stimulated in finding a solution for the state of affairs existing at the end of the second act. The scenes are laid in the house of Sir John Gower. A Captain Bagnall, having missed the last train to town, returns after midnight, reaches his vacated room by a convenient ladder, and discovers that his bed has been allotted to Molly Thornhill, an old sweetheart. They are discovered in innocent conversation by the captain's fiancée, who puts upon the situation a wrong construction. The situation is complicated by the fact that the gallant captain and Molly have found in the wardrobe a man whom they take for a burglar. In reality it is the divorced and still devoted husband of Molly, disguised for amateur theatricals, and aiming at a reconciliation. The poor man, however, has no chance to reveal his identity, and is deposited in the bathroom. When sought for to give proof of the captain's sincerity he is missing, having escaped through the window. Such is the situation awaiting solution by the third act, but the play is in no sense a problem play, though there is a passionate scene between Molly and the captain, who does not disguise his love. Molly, though high spirited and thoughtless, is not shallow, and reveals a sense of duty and responsibility. Miss Jane Saville sustains the character in excellent style, and makes it very forceful. The character of Lady Gower is a thoroughly sound and effective study on the part of Miss Eileen Munroe, who gives point to the witty remarks put into her mouth. Miss Irene Barnett does well in the part of Pamela, the captain's fiancée, and her indignation at her discovery is well acted. Mr. Douglas Greet makes a fine study of the divorced Sam Thornhill, indulgent, a little stupid, but honest and vastly amusing. Mr. G. H. Mulcaster makes a worthy, straightforward Captain Bagnall, a very likable part, and Mr. Watkin Wynne makes the character of Sir John Gower humorous and convincing.

THEATRE ROYAL HIPPODROME.

"The Touch of the Child," by Mr. Leon M. Leon, was performed at the Theatre Royal last night, and proved to be one of the most interesting playlets witnessed in Dublin for some time past. It was a refreshing change from the meaningless medley called revue, and secured in a remarkable manner the close attention of the audience. Owing to absence of information in the programme, we are unable to mention by name the artists, four in number, who filled the parts, but they are deserving of high praise for the manner in which they presented the dramatic story. Mr. George E. Carnell, light comedian, has a good voice, and sang two songs in first-class style. The bioscope pictures included some interesting films. The rest of the programme consisted of one of Fred. Karno's revues. It is entitled "Knick-Knacks," and is laid in three scenes, the last of which, the Pantheon Gardens, is an effective piece of stage-craft. The first scene, a show-room in a drapery store, is also well staged. Otherwise the revue is of the average description now familiar to the public. The "funny man" is Mr. George Hestor, and he is a humorist of the first class. Miss Ouida Macdermott, of pantomime fame, and Miss Lily St. John, are the principal actresses, and their performance secures many admirers. The other programmed parts are ably sustained by Mr. George Elliston, Mr. Harry Ray, and Miss May Sharples. There is an abundance of graceful dancing, and also some dancing that is neither graceful nor becoming.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.

At the Queen's Theatre this week an enjoyable drama, "The Victim of Villainy," is the attraction. It has many points in its favour. Tragedy and comedy are agreeably intermingled, while attention is fixed throughout on the unfolding of a fascinating series of episodes which provides a stage story of much interest. The various characters are effectively drawn, and they furnish some sharp contrasts which add to the merits of the piece. The acting last evening, when the play was enjoyed by large audiences at both performances, was of general excellence, the principal parts being creditably filled by Mr. Stephen Crossley, Miss Florence Hilton, Miss Lavender Leigh, and Mr. W. Bland, while a feature of the cast was the capable study presented of the part of "Dick Carson" by Mr. J. Walsh, who is well known in Dublin. The play was effectively staged.

EMPIRE THEATRE.

Mr. Barney Armstrong's pantomime—Christmas no longer—has returned to Dublin. Though the season is changed, "Cinderella" seems likely to have a renewed welcome throughout the week. The audiences last night were of good size, and applauded the pantomime very warmly. Evidently they found in the songs and dances easy relief from the dulness and anxiety of this time, when many are far from home amid the perils of war. Miss Madge Clifton is still prominent as the Prince of Florazia, who courts and wins the comely Cinderella. Her song, "My Old Kentucky Home," has the elements of popularity. It is one of those airs that recur to the mind's ear in spite of oneself. It appeals very slightly to reason; it does not depend upon fine feeling; yet it has a swing, and is sung so confidently by Miss Clifton that it makes not a few of the audience join in the chorus. The humour as well as the music of "Cinderella" is in known hands. Scotch Kelly, W. J. Williams, and Tom Warden are an untiring trio of comedians. And to add to the liveliness of the pantomime there is the acrobatic performance of the Lecardo Brothers. Finally, the lady who fills the title part must not be forgotten—Miss Edie Kebble, who is a winsome artiste.

TIVOLI THEATRE.

"The Merrie Monarch" is a sequel to "Nell Gwynn." The latter sketch, which was performed in Dublin not long ago, showed the beginning of the historic love-story; the present sketch, also played by Albert Wyndham and Co., shows how unsuited was the little orange woman of Drury Lane to the atmosphere of Charles' Court. The Merrie Monarch "is well act[ed]." Albert Wyndham has something of the careless ease of Charles Stuart; in Leo Deveridge there is [a] good Buckingham; and Mona Shepard is as wayward and charming as we should fancy Mistress Gwyn to have been. Of the other turns, one must first mention Frou-Frou. Frou-Frou is a dog, not a woman. But she is a very wonderful dog, instinct with intelligence; for she obeys her master's voice to the letter in a long series of tricks. Kitchen and Hall call themselves "the funny bumpers;" they certainly knock about amusingly and well on horizontal bars, and a kind of spring-board underneath. The remaining items of the programme are May Milby, a pleasing character vocalist; Henry and Dinsdale, in a burlesque; Flora and Alberta, jugglers and acrobats; Jack Holden, a lively comedian; and Cyclo, who rides daringly in mid-air.

THE COLISEUM THEATRE.

"Crackers" is the title of a revue which occupies the principal place in the programme at the Coliseum Theatre this week. It is picturesquely described on the programme as "A Bon-Bon of Delight in Two Pulls and a Bang," a description which is probably suitable to the merits of the revue. Large audiences at both performances enjoyed "Crackers," judging by the laughter which accompanied the exhibition of two pulls and a bang. In most of the revues which have been witnessed in Dublin there generally has been a saving grace of either humour or music, but the result of the two pulls and a bang in "Crackers" is a series of inanities which could not commend itself to an intelligent audience. In its favour, however, it should be stated that "Crackers" has a violinist, Miss Celina Bobe, who strikes the only artistic note in the revue, and a ballet which is dressed in attractive garb. Several songs are included, but none of them has very much merit. The principal artists are Messrs. Alec Regan, Gus Oxley, and J. E. James, and the Misses Goldie Collins, Gertie Castrella, and Masie Dover. A clever gymnastic act by the Doves was witnessed with enjoyment, and songs, including "My Blue-eyed Irish Boy," sung by Miss Mattie Lund, were heard with pleasure. The bioscope pictures, especially those showing the Russian Army preparing for a big offensive, proved to be one of the best features of the entertainment, while the orchestral selections, including "Norma" and "Poet and Peasant," provided some of the best items on the programme.

Rotunda Pictures.—At the Round Room, Rotunda, yesterday, the principal feature shown was the twentieth episode of the famous Million Dollar Mystery, entitled "The Secret Warning," depicting, with the usual graphic style, a series of dramatic incidents arising out of the efforts of a high Russian official, who seeks to have Braine and the Countess deported for offences committed in their native country. Another dramatic film entitled "A Jungle Revenge," shows some wonderful scenes of wild animal trapping, whilst "For his Pal" reveals an emotional story of a mining camp, featuring Irene Hunt and Mr. D. Sears. The comedy films, which are highly diverting, include "All for the Love of a Girl" (Vitagraph), featuring Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew, and "The Unnecessary Sex," featuring Garwood-Mersereau. The Pathe Gazette includes some fine war pictures from the Eastern front. For the second half of the week there will be a complete change of programme.

Bohemian Picture Theatre.—The chief attraction at the Bohemian Picture Theatre, Phibsborough, for the opening half of the week is "The Garden of Lies," being the dramatised version of Justus Miles Forman's successful novel of that name. The main plot reveals Lord Denis Mallary, to save the life of a princess, impersonating the prince. In addition there are a number of excellent comedy films, including "Cartoons in a Seminary" (Edison), "That Springtime Feeling" (Keystone), and "The Frame up on Dad" (Nestor). The Pathé Gazette includes all the latest war pictures, and the orchestral music is excellent. The principal attraction for the second half of the week will be a highly dramatic film entitled "The Juggernaut."

The Carlton Cinema.—In addition to an excellent programme of pictures, an exceptional attraction is offered this week by the enterprising management of the Carlton Cinema Theatre, 52 Upper Sackville street, in the special engagement of Mr. E. Goldwater, who was for a number of years first violinist at the Royal Opera, Covent Garden. Mr. Goldwater, who was a pupil of Sevcik (Master of Kubelik, Marie Hall, etc.), in addition to leading the orchestra, plays a violin solo at each performance, and was yesterday accorded enthusiastic applause. The chief film item is a five-reel drama entitled "John Glaydes' Honour," featuring Aubrey Smith, the great American actor. This great drama was originally produced by Sir George Alexander at the St. James's Theatre, London, and achieved a phenomenal success in the United States, where it was converted into an equally dramatic film. Other features include the drama, "Chief of Circle S," a fresh episode in the "Exploits of Elaine," and the Keystone comedy, "Peanuts and Bullets."

Dame Street Picture House.—At the Dame Street Picture House, where the performances are continuous from 2 to 10.30 p.m., a highly successful film rendering of "Quo Vadis" is showing on the screen, depicting many dramatic incidents in Roman history in the time of Nero. Practically every incident in the great novel has been preserved with dramatic fidelity, and there is not a dull moment throughout the whole six reels. The Court of Nero, the burning of Rome, the sacrifice of Christians, and the death of the tyrant, are all done ample justice. "Quo Vadis" will be shown throughout the entire week, whilst in addition, for the opening three days the second episode of the "Exploits of Elaine" is being presented, and from Thursday the second episode of "The Broken Coin."

Clontarf Town Hall.—At the Town Hall Cinema, Clontarf, which is now under entirely new management, the programme is changed three times weekly. Yesterday an excellent series of films was presented, chief amongst them being the second chapter of the great series entitled "The Broken Coin," and "The Plot of India's Hillmen," a stirring story of old-time India, in two acts. There are also three mirth-provoking comedies, as well as the Topical Budget, showing the latest films taken at the front. On Wednesday, when there will be a change of programme, the performances will be continuous from 4 to 10.30. The orchestral music is a feature of the entertainment.

Princess Cinema, Rathmines.—"Jim—just Jim," is the title of a four-part drama of exquisite beauty, which constitutes the star attraction at the Princess Cinema, Rathmines, for the opening half of the present week. There is also a first-class programme of the latest and best films, chief amongst them being the one-reel comedy "Pimple's Dream of Victory," and the Keystone comedy "Luckless Love." A series of splendid war cartoons are shown dealing with the latest phases of the great world tragedy, and the new Pathé Gazette is thoroughly up-to-date. There will be a complete change of programme on Thursday next.

COMING EVENTS.

Baggotrath Church.—A Missionary Gift Day will be held in Church Hall, Upper Baggot street, to-day, from 3 to 6.30 p.m. Opening address by Rev. William Baillie, M.A.

Punchestown Week.—One of the most enjoyable social events in connection with Punchestown Week will probably be the dance arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Leggett Byrne, to be held at the Gresham Hotel, Dublin, on Tuesday, April 11th, for the benefit of the Kildare Prisoners of War Fund. The presence of Mr. Clarke-Barry's orchestra will be an interesting attraction.

St. Mary's Parish.—The weekly Evangelistic Service will be conducted at the Parochial Hall, 20 Lower Dominick street, to-night, at 8 o'clock. An address by Rev. J. O. Gage Dougherty, M.A.

Women and Taxation.—To-night, at 8, Mr. Walter Cole, President of the Irish Financial Relations Committee, will deliver an address on "The Question of Taxation as it Affects Women" to the Irish Women's Franchise League in 34 Westmoreland street.

PITMAN'S SHORTHAND CERTIFICATES.—At the Special Examination held March 9, at speeds of from 50 to 100 words a minute, 51 pupils of ROSSE COLLEGE, Stephen's Green, Dublin, gained certificates.—(Advt.)

WANTED
Men used to Horses.

Active Men accustomed to Horses are wanted at once for the Army Veterinary Corps.

This is an opportunity for men between 41 and 47 years of age, or younger men who are ineligible for service in the Infantry, but who are active and fit for hard work as long as it does not involve long marches on foot.

Men wishing to serve in this way should apply to the nearest Recruiting Officer to be medically examined, and if found fit for service in the Army Veterinary Corps will receive a free railway ticket to Woolwich, where, if suitable, they will be attested for the duration of the War.

All men found unsuitable will be able to return home free of charge.

Full particulars can be obtained At any Recruiting Office.

MARVELLOUS VICTORY OVER VARICOSE VEINS

Wonderful New "Spirastic" Supports.

Old-Fashioned Dangerous Elastic Stockings Entirely Superseded.

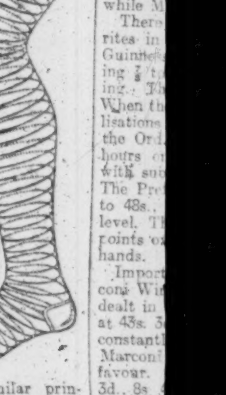
A well-known Manufacturer of Surgical Appliances has made a marvellous discovery, which entirely revolutionises the treatment of Varicose Veins.

For the first time it is now possible for the sufferer from this most painful and dangerous ailment to go about in perfect comfort and at the same time to so strengthen the parts that a complete and permanent cure is ultimately assured.

As Mr. Cooper, the inventor, says, "Every sufferer from Varicose Veins knows only too well the clumsy and painful nature of the ordinary elastic stocking, but few realise that there is a grave danger in wearing these appliances.

"Ordinary elastic stockings are made with harsh, coarse ribs at the back and sides, and these constantly pressing upon the distended blood vessels may at any moment set up Inflammation and Ulceration, and thus cause the Varicose Veins to burst.

"Now, however, by my wonderful new 'Spirastic' method, the hard, dangerous seams of the old-fashioned elastic stockings are entirely abolished, and perfect comfort and support are given to the limbs."



The New Mecca "Spirastic" Supports, as clearly shown in the accompanying illustration, are woven on a similar principle to "puttees," which any soldier will tell you are the only possible leg supports for long marches. Fitting with the softness of a kid glove, they neither press, pinch, nor cut the limb, nor do they wrinkle or lose their elasticity. They cost no more than the ordinary hard-ribbed stocking, and yet will last at least three times as long.

If, therefore, you suffer from Varicose Veins, Loss of Power in the Legs, Weak Knees, Swollen Ankles, Pain when walking or standing, or Ulcerated Limbs, write at once to Mr. Cooper, Manufacturer of Surgical Appliances, 254 Holborn Hall, Gray's Inn Road, London, W.C., for free Illustrated Booklet fully describing this wonderful invention. Immediately you receive it you will realise why the Mecca "Spirastic" Supports give greater comfort and freedom from pain and eventually effect a complete and permanent cure.

Mr. Cooper can be seen personally every day (except Saturdays), from 10 to 1 and from 2 to 4.

Germany's Rapidly Approaching Doom.

When you come to think of it, this sketch is not so terribly repulsive at all. It represents the truth—Germany's approaching doom. It reflects neutral opinion. It is a miniature pen and ink reproduction of one of RAEMAEKERS' sensational cartoons, entitled "Germany's Dance with Death." It gives you a bird's eye view, so to speak, of the 139 Cartoons reproduced in actual colours and size now on exhibition for a few weeks at Combridge's Picture Shop in Grafton Street. These Cartoons took London by Storm—in fact, they created such a profund impression throughout the world that the Kaiser placed a price upon Raemaekers' head. This fact alone is abundant evidence as to why you should make it your business to see them. During the past ten days hundreds of Dublin citizens, including a great many well-known and competent critics have visited this Exhibition, and we confess that we ourselves are astounded at the interest taken in them by all. Not only that, but we have been obliged to renew our Stock of Catalogues which we thought would have lasted more than a month. We wish to draw your particular attention to the fact that we have for sale at one guinea each a very limited number of signed Artists' proofs in colours. As the demand for these is becoming keener every day, and bearing in mind that the issue will not be repeated in this or any country, those who wish to possess one should make immediate application. The originals of these Cartoons fetched from 20 guineas upwards, and no doubt as time goes on their value will considerably increase. It may be well to mention that apart from their brilliant conception and the smashing blow they deal at German Kultur, their colouring and general execution immediately stamped them as masterpieces. Perhaps not now, but in a few years time when this tragic and melancholy war has passed into history—those who secure one of these signed artists' proofs will possess a link with and a reminder of the greatest war of all time which they will treasure as an heirloom. Country residents should send 7d. to Combridge's, Ltd, Grafton Street, Dublin, for a completely illustrated catalogue from which purchases can be made. The catalogue contains 139 reproductions.

FINANCIAL NEWS

DUBLIN STOCK EXCHANGE.

GUINNESS AND MARCONIS GOOD. DUBLIN DISTILLERS DECLINE ON REALISATIONS.

DUBLIN, MONDAY EVENING.

There was a good deal of interesting matter during the business hour on 'Change today. Irregular movements were established in most directions. The sharp rise in Guinness Ord. Shares was an outstanding feature, while the relapse of 3s. in both the Ord. and Pref. Shares of the Dublin Distillers Company was due to efforts to secure profits out of the recent advance. Marconi Wireless Telegraph Shares came into prominence again to-day, and prices advanced to a substantial extent, though not quite closing at best point reached. The rise in Alliance Gas Shares and the harder market for Coats Ord., with the weaker tendency for Dublin United Tramway Ord. Shares, were other points in quite an interesting afternoon market.

Among Banking securities, Bank of Ireland Stock repeated 184¼, and Nationals 15¾, while Munster and Leinsters rose 1/16 to 5⅝.

There was quite a brisk business in favourites in the Brewery and Distillery market. Guinness Ord. jumped into prominence by rising ⅞ to 23¼, without any intermediate dealing. The Pref. Shares eased 1/16 to 11 11/16. When the Dublin Distillers market opened realisations were attempted, with the result that the Ord., which had been up to 19s. after hours on Friday, opened 2s. lower at 17s., with subsequent transactions at 16s. and 15s. The Pref. Shares, in sympathy, gave way 3s. to 48s., but closed buyers for choice at this level. The Debs. were on offer at 75, or 4 points over last marking, but did not change hands.

Important gains were established for Marconi Wireless Telegraph shares. The Ord. was dealt in between 43s. and 43s. 6d., and closed at 43s. 3d., or a fresh rise of 2s. The Pref. were constantly bid for, and rose 3s. 3d. to 37s. 3d. Marconi Subsidiary shares also came into favour. Canadians further advanced 6d. to 8s. 3d., 8s. 4½d., while Americans were bid up 1s. on last price without getting any shares. The 1915 balance sheets of the company and its subsidiaries are expected to become available during the next three months.

Home Railways varied very little, and the market was small. Midland Great Western rose ⅜ to 29¼, while Great Northern repeated 94¾, and Great Southern and Western 84½.

In Dunlops Parent Tyre Deferred eased to 22s., 22s. 1½d., but the Pref. rose 1½d. to 15s. 1½d. Dunlop Rubber Ord. and Pref. were featureless, but the French Income bonds fell 4½d. to 17s. 6d.

In Gas Shares Alliance and Dublin Consumers rose ⅜ to 6⅜, and the Deb. stock repeated 65½.

Dealing in Bakery Shares was confined to Bolands Ord., which fell 1s. 6d. further to 55s.

Drapery Shares were quiet. Todd Burns 4½ p.c. Debs. fell 5s. to 75s., while Pim Bros. Ord. repeated 5⅜.

Manufacturing Shares were idle generally. Coats Ord. hardened 1/16 further to 5⅜, but the Preferred Ord. fell 1/16 to 35⅞.

Trading, etc., Shares were steady. Burke Debs. rose 1/32 to 8 1/32. Irish Times 1st Pref. fell 1s. 3d. to 80s., but the 2nd Pref. repeated 16s. 3d.

LONDON STOCK MARKETS STEADY.

HOME RAILS ACTIVE.
RUBBER SHARES IN DEMAND.

LONDON, MONDAY.

Owing to a blizzard in England our extended introduction to the Stock Markets did not reach us. Summary reports state that the markets at the close had a good tendency, the feature again being the demand for Home Rails, which did not hold the best prices. Rubber Shares were active. American Rails were quiet. Canadian and Foreign Rails were dull.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

Bank Rate, 5 p.c. (changed August 8, 1914).

The demand for loans remained fairly urgent, owing to preparations for the impending turn of the fiscal year. Call money commanded 4 to 4½ per cent., and weekly loans 4½ to 4¼ per cent. Nothing, however, was borrowed by the market at the Bank of England. The latter transacted a fair business in Treasury Bills at the previous rates. There were no movements of importance in calls or dividend payments, but the turnover in this connection this week will be fairly heavy. On Thursday there is a call of £1,200,000 on the South Australian 5 per cent. Loan, while dividend and interest payments on Friday will aggregate about 1¼ millions. On Saturday, with the advent of April, disbursements will aggregate nearly 13 millions.

The discount market was quiet and not very steady, and there was again some foreign demand for fine bills. Two months' drafts were taken at 4 7/16 to 4½ per cent., three months at 4 7/16 to 4½ per cent., and six months at 4¾ per cent. Trade paper was quoted from 5 to 5½ per cent. for the various dates. The New York exchange ruled rather weaker at 4.76½ to 4.76⅜.

The silver market further reacted on selling to secure profits. Most of the offerings emanated from India. The quotation for spot bars was fixed 1/16d. lower at 28 1/16d. per oz., and closed dull at the set-back.

The Bank of England announced the purchase of £1,004,000 in foreign gold coin.

The Bank of England on Monday, April 3rd, will receive tenders for £1,500,000 Liverpool Corporation twelve months' bills in replacement of a similar amount falling due on 9th prox.

The following were the principal foreign exchange rates current to-day:—New York cables, 4.76 1/16 to 4.77 1/16; Paris, 28.42 to 28.47; Amsterdam, 11.19 to 11.24; Italy, 31.90 to 32.00; Scandinavia, 16.60 to 16.80; Petrograd, 150½ to 151½; Rio de Janeiro 90 days' bills, 11½d.; Buenos Ayres ditto, 48¼d.

RUBBER SHARES ACTIVE.

The price of Plantation rubber was 3/6½ per lb. Dealings in the share market continued to be large and well spread. Activity was so general that it is somewhat difficult to pick out particular features, but Besoki were prominent, with a jump to 15/3, Alluta 18/6 bid, and Bah Lias 23/1½ bid. There were buyers of all the following at the prices appended:—Bajoe Kidoel at 36/-, Batu Caves 13½, Braunston 40/-, Bukit Kajang 63/9, Djasinga 18/6, Java Investment Options 1/9, Langkat Sumatra 50/-, London Asiatic 9/- Mendaris 20/1½, Merlimau 5/6, Port Dickson 2/10½, Selangor River 92/6, Strathmore 56/6. In the Borneo Section Bodes were the most prominent feature, with numerous dealings up to 2/3. Borneo Trust kept about 16/9, and the Options very active around 1/11. Sapong 24/- bid, and Sekong changed hands at 24/6. Langkon hardened further to 13/- bid, and Sablas still inquired for at about 14/6.

DIVIDENDS, REPORTS, AND MEETINGS.

EDMOND JOHNSON, LTD.—Dividend on 5 per cent. Pref. Shares for year ended 31st January, 1916; £307 forward.

ALEXANDER THOM AND CO., LTD.—The report states that the profit for the year, including interest on investments, is £10,204, which, with the balance brought forward of £4,515, makes £14,720. After payment of interim dividends, directors' fees, and interest on Debentures, and writing off £1,288 for maintenance and repairs on premises and plant, and £1,648 for depreciation of investments, to reduce them to present market value, there remains £6,982. The directors recommend payment of 6¼ per cent. per annum for six months on Pref. Shares and 5 per cent. per annum on the Ord., placing to general reserve fund £500, and carrying forward £4,996.—Meeting April 5, 3 p.m., at Imperial Hotel.

STAGG AND MANTLE.—8 per cent. on Ord.

AGRICULTURAL BANK OF EGYPT.—Ord. Shares 6/- per share, Def. Shares £15 per share.

JAMES W. COOK.—Final on the Ord. at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum.

DELHI AND LONDON BANK.—4 per cent. per annum.

JABEZ JOHNSTON, HOGKINSON, AND PEARSON.—Interim of 10 per cent. per annum on Ord.

SILVERTON TRAMWAY.—Interim dividend of 1/- per share and bonus of 1/- per share.

VIRGINIA (CAROLINA) CHEMICAL.—Quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. on Pref.

RICHARD WHEEN AND SONS.—1½ per cent. on Ord.

MANSELL, HUNT, CATTY, AND CO.—7 per cent. on Ord.

SOUTH AFRICAN AND GENERAL INVESTMENT AND TRUST.—2½ per cent. per annum.

BROMPTON AND KENSINGTON ELECTRICITY SUPPLY.—11 per cent. per annum, making 10 per cent. for the year.

INSULINDE (SUMATRA).—An interim dividend of 10 per cent. (actual), less tax, in respect of year ending June, 1916, payable 6th April.

PANAWAL TEA.—It is proposed to pay a final bonus of 10 per cent. on the Ordinary Shares, making 50 per cent.; to increase the reserve fund to £12,000 by the addition of £2,500, leaving to be carried forward £61.

HINGURUGAMA TEA AND RUBBER ESTATES.—It is recommended to transfer to general reserve account £1,000, to pay a final dividend of 8 per cent., making 24 per cent. for the year, £3,040, leaving to be carried forward £4,543.

LONDON ASIATIC.—The crop of rubber for 1916 is estimated at 1,310,000lbs. The net profit amounts to £75,140. Add amount carried forward £9,621; less donations to Red Cross funds, £200, making £84,561. Final dividend of 30 per cent. (making 40 per cent. for the year) is recommended, £47,939, leaving to be carried forward £20,656.

EDINBURGH COLLIERIES COMPANY.—Including £16,532 brought forward, and after making provision for interest on debentures and bond, there is a profit of £21,340. The sum of £25,000 is written off for depreciation. The directors recommend that a final dividend be paid on the Ordinary Shares of 7½ per cent., making 10 per cent. for the year, free of tax, leaving £17,050 to be carried forward. Last year no dividend was paid on the Ordinary Shares.

SOUTHALL, BROS. AND BARCLAY.—At the meeting of this company of wholesale chemists at Birmingham yesterday Sir Thomas Barclay said the increase in export business had been abnormal and a large proportion of inquiries were from sources which in previous times drew their supplies from Central Europe, and for goods hitherto mainly purchased from Germany and Austria. There had been a tremendous advance in this country in glassware and porcelain, formerly supplied by Germany, and filter paper, almost wholly imported from Germany, was now manufactured here for chemical purposes. An ordinary dividend equivalent to 15 per cent. was declared.

FINANCIAL NOTES.

The clearings of the Manchester banks for the first quarter of the year ended Saturday last amounted to 103 millions, twelve millions more than in the corresponding period before the war, and 27 millions more than in the corresponding period of last year. The figures are largely in excess of any previously registered in Manchester, and are due to the abnormal prices which prevail, activity of the home trade in cotton goods, and investments in War Loans and Exchequer Bonds.

The Corporation of Liverpool announces that tenders will be received at the Bank of England, London, on Monday, the 3rd April, for Liverpool Corporation Bills to the amount of £1,500,000, in replacement of bills falling due on the 9th idem. The Bills will be in amounts of £1,000, £5,000, or £10,000. They will be dated the 8th day of April, 1916, and will be payable at twelve months after date—viz., the 8th day of April, 1917.

Miss Theodora Roberts, an Englishwoman, aged 50, died at Florence a few days ago. She was very well known for her many charities, especially as the foundress and directress of a medical mission which for many years did extremely good work among the poorer classes. Almost all her considerable fortune was spent in alleviating distress, especially among her needy compatriots.

DOLPHIN HOTEL CO.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the Dolphin Hotel and Restaurant Company and Michael Nugent, Ltd., was held yesterday at the Dolphin Hotel premises, Essex street, Dublin, Mr. Michael Nugent, managing director, presiding. There was a small attendance of shareholders, and the following directors were present:—Alderman James Moran, J.P.; Mr. Joseph Ward, J.P., and Mr. Michael Murray.

Mr. William Dowling, Secretary, submitted the report of the directors, from which it appeared that, after deducting trade expenses and charges, the profits for the year, together with the balance of £235 18/6 brought over from last account, amounted to £2,969 14/3, from which £1,089 17/4 auditors' and directors' fees and income tax had to be deducted, leaving for distribution a balance of £1,879 16/11, out of which it was proposed to pay a dividend of 6 per cent. per annum on the Preference Shares.

The Chairman, in moving the adoption of the report, expressed regret that it and the accounts which they had received did not show a better result for the year's trading. It was unnecessary to tell them that that was due to the abnormal conditions still existing, and which they had all experienced in their domestic relations, so that they could easily realise how greatly the war had affected their business. They not only had their profits reduced by the unusual cost of goods, but a large number of their customers had gone away on active service, and their expenses were increased in the maintenance of the staff. The Dolphin business, which included their wholesale dealings with clubs and other hotels, had suffered considerably also. One of their largest wholesale customers—the Tourist Development Co.—whose four hotels and railway refreshment rooms they supplied with wines, whiskey, etc., had been put out of business altogether by the war, and they lost in turnover and profits accordingly. The club dinners also, which had fallen away from the declaration of war in 1914, were nearly £1,000 less in 1915, or practically nil, so that on the whole they had had a very hard time of it. However, it was some consolation to remember that it was only a temporary dislocation of the business, and that when normal conditions were established it would be as profitable as ever. The balance sheet showed their liabilities to be increased by some £700, but on the asset side they had an increase of a similar amount in stock and cash. The sundry debtors were reduced by the closed accounts of the Tourist Development Co., and more prompt payments by some other customers.

Alderman Moran seconded the motion for the adoption of the report.

Mr. Thomas Boyle said he had been watching the rapid decline of the Dolphin Restaurant for the last sixteen years. When he became a shareholder the Dolphin Hotel and Restaurant constituted one of the most flourishing concerns in Dublin. It paid then 8 per cent., and now it had gone down year by year until he believed the Preference shareholders would probably take charge of it. In his opinion the place suffered from too much management.

Mr. Pratt thought that £942 10/- was too large a sum to pay to directors out of a profit of £2,969. It represented almost a third of the profits of the year's working.

Mr. James Phelan said the explanation about bad trade was unsatisfactory, and he believed that a change in the mode of conducting the business was absolutely necessary. There should be a reconstruction of the company and a re-arrangement with regard to the directors.

The Chairman, replying, said he had as much interest in the concern as any ordinary shareholder. He held 2,880 Ordinary Shares, which he could have sold with very substantial advantage if he had liked, but such was his interest and confidence in the concern that he refused to dispose of them, and, in addition to these, he held 525 Preference Shares.

The report was adopted.

A dividend at the rate of six per cent. per annum, less income tax, on the Preference Shares was declared on the motion of the Chairman seconded by Mr. Joseph Ward.

Mr. Ward was then re-elected a director, and Messrs. Kean and Co. were re-elected auditors, and the business of the meeting concluded.

STEWART INSTITUTION FOR IMBECILE CHILDREN.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual general meeting in connection with the Stewart Institution for Imbecile Children, Palmerstown, Co. Dublin, was held yesterday at 40 Molesworth street, Mr. Orlando P. Beater, LL.B., presiding.

The annual report of the Managing Committee stated that under existing circumstances the Institution's position was, on the whole, to be regarded as not unsatisfactory. The friends of the Institution have maintained their interest in its work, though the amount of the annual subscriptions received during the year showed a falling off of over £51 from 1914, the amount received being £1,218 10/6. The donations (which include a legacy of £100 from the late Mrs. M. A. Hare) reached £402, almost exactly the total of last year. The payments received from maintenance of inmates (who included a certain number on full pay rates) amounted to £2,026 1/4, something over those of last year.

The Medical Superintendent, in his report, stated that at the commencement of the year there were in the imbecile division 69 boys and 42 girls. Since then there were admitted 11 boys and four girls, discharged 10 boys and one girl, died three boys, which left a gross total of 67 boys and 45 girls. The general health was good.

The Chairman, in moving the adoption of the reports and statement of accounts, mentioned that three of the candidates admitted during the year were children of soldiers. It was probable in the future there would be more applications from children of men serving in the Army, and it would be necessary to enlarge the organisations in the country. Secretaries would be required in districts that were not yet worked. The reports of the lunacy inspectors were very satisfactory.

Mr. Adam Lloyd Blood, in seconding the motion, which was unanimously adopted, testified from personal observation to the admirable manner in which this unique charity was administered in all its branches.

Mr. R. H. A. M'Comas, J.P., proposed, and Mr. John S. Russell seconded, a resolution according thanks to the county secretaries and other friends who worked so actively for the benefit of the Institution during the year.

Dr. Rainsford referred to the excellent services rendered for many years to the Institution by the late Sir Charles Ball. It was a pleasure to know that his work would be continued by his son. Dr. Walter Smith and Dr. Day had been of invaluable help during the year. Dr. Rainsford also paid tribute to the staff, who worked loyally, and enabled him to carry on the work fairly satisfactory.

The motion was adopted unanimously.

Mr. J. Mayne Colles, LL.D., proposed the re-election of the Committee, and hoped that at some time soon there would be introduced a sane scheme in Ireland for dealing with the work of an institution like theirs.

Mr. George P. Beater, C.E., seconded the motion, which was adopted.

Mr. Earle Bland having been moved to the second chair, a cordial vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman.

An Order in Council has been passed at Ottawa prohibiting the export of nickel except to British countries.

THE MONKSTOWN HOSPITAL.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Rev. John Pim, B.D., presided yesterday evening at the annual meeting of the friends and supporters of Monkstown Hospital. There were present:—A. Morris, Miss Kelly, Miss Johnston, Miss Thornhill, Mrs. Irvine, Mr. Ramsay, Miss Wolseley, Miss Shaw, Mrs. Laughier, Miss Lanphier, R. W. Ward, L.D.S.E.; Mrs. R. W. Ward, Miss Krutman, the Misses Cuthbertson, John Kempster, C.E.; Mrs. Kempster, Joseph Beatty, Mrs. Armstrong, Miss Chute, W. T. Duke, R. Blair White, Mrs. Lawder, Mrs. Herbert Dudgeon, R. Lynn Heard, M.B.; Miss Peacocke, Miss Mitchell, A. D. Kennedy, Miss Murray, the Misses Beatty, John G. Tatlow, F. A. Millar, Herbert Jones, Rev. Charles Dowse, M.A.; Miss Tait, Mrs. Linde King, Miss Allen, Miss Johnston, Miss Niven, Miss Kelly, Miss Mitchell, Miss Jones, Lady Superintendent; Nurse Coy, Nurse Martin, Nurse Graham, Miss V. Pilkington, Miss Adeney, Miss Richardson, Dr. Ramsay (House Surgeon), James A. Bury, Rev. T. Mack, Mrs. Mack, Miss Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Gambell, Miss Yeates, A. V. M'Cormick, Miss Powell, Miss Parry, Mrs. Fitzmaurice, Dr. Kidd, J. G. Bird, R. de Courcy Wheeler, M.B.; F. M. Bentley, Dr. Deane, A. S. Deane, Rev. T. Pearson, Rev. Dr. Elliott, Dr. W. E. Adeney, F.C.S.; Jos. Vaughan, Sir Hawtrey and Lady Benson, Miss L. Pim, Miss De Moleyns, Rev. Canon Dowse, M.A.; Rev. Herbert Kennedy, G. Lane M'Cormick.

The Hon. Secretary, Mr. John Kempster, read the annual report and statement of accounts. The report stated that the work done was largely in excess of the average. The number of patients treated—349—was the largest recorded since 1901. There were 8,647 attendances at the dispensary and "James Weir" Accident Ward. The Committee regretted a further falling off in the amount received from annual subscribers, which amount showed a steady decrease from £561 in 1911, to £469 in 1915. The Committee felt Miss Jones, the Lady Superintendent, was entitled to great credit for the care she had shown and the economy she had exercised. Pound Day had realised £47 in cash and goods, and the Committee returned their warmest thanks to Miss Jones and her helpers and friends. The following former resident medical officers had received temporary commissions in the R.A.M.C., viz.:—Dr. Douglas, Dr. M'Carkey, Dr. Gray, Dr. Walker, and Dr. Hall.

The Chairman said in all charitable meetings in these days one had a feeling that it required an effort, but it was an effort that was incumbent on them to make that the ordinary commonplace charities of daily life should not suffer any more than they could help in the demands made upon them by the war. They knew what an awful blank it would mean in their lives and the lives of those whom it served if Monkstown Hospital were not there. He was very sorry to have to refer to the loss which Dublin medical life had suffered in the death of Sir Charles Ball, whose services were always at the disposal of Monkstown Hospital. His services and his generosity lived, and he had left an honoured name behind him. (Applause.) The most extraordinary thing in the hospital management was how Miss Jones had succeeded in feeding her big household with efficiency without incurring more expense. The Committee desired to have more subscribers. The fact that their ordinary income was £40 more than their ordinary expenditure did not mean that they had £40 to play with, but that they owed the bank £40 less. (Applause.)

Rev. H. B. Kennedy, B.D., moved the adoption of the report, and eulogised the services rendered by Mr. Ward, the honorary dentist.

Mr. R. Blair White seconded the motion, which was adopted.

Sir Hawtrey Benson proposed the re-election of the Committee.

Mr. A. V. M'Cormick, J.P., seconded.

The motion was adopted.

Rev. T. Pearson, B.D., moved a vote of thanks to the honorary collectors, and to Mr. Kempster, Hon. Secretary.

Mr. R. W. Ward seconded, and the motion was adopted.

The proceedings concluded.

BELFAST AND DISTRICT.

BELFAST OFFICE, 108 ROYAL AVENUE.
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)
MONDAY NIGHT.

Two Persons Killed.—A distressing railway accident, in which two people were killed, occurred last evening at Balmoral Station, on the Belfast to Dublin line. The victims were Mrs. Elizabeth Cowan and her daughter Eva, aged nine years, who resided at Glendill, Dunmurry, a few miles from the scene of the accident. They were visiting relatives at Balmoral, and subsequently accompanied by Mrs. Cowan's brother, Mr. Wm. J. Gibson, went to the Balmoral Station. Snow was falling heavily at the time, and when they reached the station they found that their train was at the other platform. As they had not much time they crossed the line instead of going by the bridge. At that moment the Dublin express was heard approaching, but Mrs. Cowan and her daughter were unable to get clear of the metals before it dashed into them. Both were killed instantly, and their bodies were found in a terribly mutilated condition some distance along the line.

The Nelson Street Fire.—Four more bodies have been recovered from the débris at the scene of the recent fire at Messrs. O. and T. Gallagher's premises in Nelson street. They are believed to be the bodies of the four women workers who were last seen at a window during the progress of the fire. One of the bodies has been identified by a portion of the clothing by Robert M'Clinton, 79 Academy street, as that of his wife, Kate M'Clinton.
